
Some more AO lay-out suggestions

Posted by linsi - 2007/06/22 06:07

Can i suggest again please? :blush:

If it's possible as shown in the rough lay out image below:

Is it possible to add a logo?

When somebody suggested a preference for good things and solutions to asia's problems, a good logo in the homepage is ideal to show that there are lighter and nice things featured and discussed about asia aside from current and main events in the frontpage.

Just a suggestion.

hope it is possible:ohmy:

Hi Linsi,

I will look into that. Would need some help to design the logo first - but will check with my brother, who has been doing much of the design work at Asia Observer.

Cheers,

John;)
