Very nice site!

Congratulations on your new site!

I really like it. I have been a regular at Asia Observer for some while and was wondering when you were going to redesign it. The result is awesome and I am sure Asia Observer will be much more attractive to many users. Keep the good work up, John!

I second that!

Asia Observer has really been designed well. Its a nice site to visit and soon I am sure even the forums will be thickly populated. I will surely spread the word around.

Thanks John.

I am sure that it will be much better than the previous one.

You can also see who is visiting/viewing this forum, on visitor's map, don't you think that intelligent people will be able to monitor the users?

Pne last Correction on the top of the right hand side, you have mentioned Burmese MUNKS instead of MONKS for the photo of the Burmese monks.

Thanks for pointing out the spelling mistake, Mogyothwar. It has been corrected now.

As for the visitor's map, you are able to place yourself on the map manually, choosing the desired location. From the map, click "My details", then "Geographical coordinates". Another map will then pop up where you can drag the marker to the desired location and then confirm it.

This is wonderful! I really hope a lot of people will join the site. Especially I like the visitors map!

Just one question, John. I don't quite understand what is under the "Worth reading" tab. Can you explain?

You are still looking at the dummy site, Kevin - and the "Worth reading" tab is still not ready. Check back tomorrow when we are live with the site on the asiaobserver.com domain.

Thanks for your kind words! I appreciate it.

John:)

Dear John.

There is still one more spelling mistake in your photo topics.

Munks in cambodia instead of MONKS in cambodia.

Sorry,

Mogyothwar
