
Play games on Asia Observer!

Posted by Sandvand - 2007/03/18 18:49

A new feature has been added for our members: You can now play games on Asia Observer.

Go here to try it out.

A great selection of fun and free games are included. The selection will change frequently.

This service is only open to registered members. (Register here if you are not a member yet)

A shortcut to the games area is included in your user menu in the left column. You can also enter from the "Members" page.

Have fun!
