

---

Even diva can't resist Chinese imitations

Posted by linsi - 2008/04/20 10:52

---

<http://www.hongkonghustle.com/wp-content/TempleStreetNightMarket3.jpg>

SHANGHAI - Gucci, D&G, Armani or Prada, it seems the knock-offs here are so good even the stars can't resist them.

A spokeswoman for the Shanghai Intellectual Property Administration Office told reporters this week that it was "a shame" Celine Dion was spotted shopping in the city's notorious knock-off stores.

A vendor nearby told them a lot of stars frequented the shop, and "they are afraid of being shot by the media, so the shop owner will send the stuff to their hotels."

Sure enough, early that evening, at least nine packages were handed over to members of Dion's entourage, according to the local paparazzi.

Knock-off shopping is one of the biggest tourist attractions in China, right up there with walking the Great Wall and visiting the Forbidden City.

<http://www.canada.com/edmontonjournal/news/story.html?id=6c54ce1a-c349-4e72-ac9e-b540379e8c01&k=35130>

=====