
Myanmar for a piece of Gold?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/04/25 00:49

Dear Patriots,

You may have heard it before that Judas sold Jesus Christ for 30 pieces of silver.

Did anybody know how much Ma Su Kyi got to give herself to Micheal Aris or she had to give as a Dowry to get Micheal Aris, the English man and have crossed breed Alex and Kim?

Some years ago in England at the Chilton Hotel meeting Burma was offered one billion dollars to hand over power to NLD led by Ma Su Kyi, Burma refused.

Have you heard the news?

Now United States of America is offering Ma Su Kyi one Gold piece

What is she going to do with it for return? Is she going to sell Myanmar for that one piece of Gold? Is she going to create another civil war? .Is she going to bring the nation down?

Who is she going to please this time, with whose expense?

The point is Myanmar is a free, independent, sovereign state since 1948. Neutral and none aligned nation. Free from all foreign influences.

Ma Su Kyi has been bribed and showered with Silver and Gold for creating chaos and lawlessness in Myanmar since she arrived back. The British created the civil war before they left Burma, British attempted to bribe her father Ko Aung San with the rank of Inspector General of the Armed forces in Burma, (British Burma Army) once. But Ko Aung San refused to accept instead he quit from the army for he loved the people for he loved the country.

The late drug war Lord Khun Za was offered millions of dollars as well as acknowledgement of his area as Independent Shan State, his cause for fighting against the Government of Union of Burma as legitimate cause. In return US wanted missiles sites on Shan soil.

Ma Su Kyi will support whatever US is doing on Myanmar for a piece of Gold.

Even U Khun Za was not a stupid idiot. At least he knew which is his country who are his people.

Regards,

Thunderbolts

=====

Re:Myanmar for a piece of Gold?

Posted by Polaris - 2008/04/25 21:49

Dear Thunderbolts,

Good to know you are back from Myanmar and appearing at AO forum 'Myanmar for a piece of Gold'. Come to think of it, Nelson Mandela who struggled against the white minority Government was put in jail for 27 years, got his Noble Peace Award in 1993, but as for Ma Suu Kyi, she was awarded the Noble Peace Prize in 1991. Two years earlier than Mandela. What has she done to deserve this prestigious prize in such a short time? The big question is why. By following all the awards large and small given to various opposition groups all over the world, I can only come to one conclusion. For the West, it is most cost affective and without loss of lives and limbs to them are letting these recipients to do their dirty work for them to achieve their interests and objectives.

To put it rudely, any dogs that bark and bark loudly at Governments which they disliked, most likely will be rewarded handsomely.

Ma Suu Kyi while collecting Gold in the name of freedom and democracy will let the people of Myanmar suffer. Now that she has received so many awards and put on a world spotlight and stage, she is in a very precarious and tight spot. She has no other option but to follow the course set by her Masters. 'Thu San Sar. Ye Ma'. She has sold her Soul for a Piece of Gold.

Have a nice day

I am Polaris

=====

Re:Myanmar for a piece of Gold?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/04/26 09:16

Dear Polaris,

Thank you, for your kind words.

Let me go straight to the point. Mr Nelson Mandela struggled and fought against apartheid system THROUGH OUT HIS LIFE, he never left South Africa. He was with his people for better or for worse all along. He did not abandoned his country or his people for any reason. He did not jump on the political wagon from the middle of the road. Nelson Mandela was the victim of the white minority. White means not only the white Afrikaaners in South Africa but also British, Dutch and other European who were with the white Afrikaaners against Black South Africans majority.

Chief Buthelezi was like Jinnah of Pakistan, he played his card very cleverly. He is still the Chief of Natal autonomous region in SA.

Have you seen South Africa national flag before ANC came to power Polaris? That will explain you everything. . What I want to tell you is Britain and some European countries have had their hands in South Africa's apartheid system. They were a part of it. Only when ANC became so powerful Britain and European countries took credits by putting pressures on Botha/DeKlerk regime. You also know South Africa was annexed by Britain in 1877. British were busy in South Africa that was why they were late to take Mandalay(Myanmar) They did not do anything they only stood and watch when Tharawaddy Min came down to Yangon with his army in 1841.

Mr Mandela was released from the prison, not because of the pressures from the west but after serving his full term for 27 years. The pressures did help not to extend his prison term.

Why Ma Su Kyi was awarded Noble Prize two years earlier then Nelson Mandela was your question. What has she done to deserve this was next. That is a very good question. I hope there will be somebody who can give you the answer you want to hear. But I might upset you if I'd say " I don't know ". Still my u=answers might also make you disappointed. But , I have to give you my answer in my in my own way.

You may even have answers of your own to your own questions. You want to know what's mine.

To put them on the record, there is nothing much that I know of what Ma Su Kyi has done for Myanmar and its people in all of her life or for anybody around the world as long as she lives. There is nothing she has don for anybody. All she does was piss and air, that was in 1988. when she came to Myanmar in a country where most people's education is below average, I am sorry to say for these people she may be something, but for me she is nothing. I don't mean to be personnel. There is nothing between her and myself nothing at all. As I have said many times that I have spoken to her not less then in three occasions. I can say know her.

But, Ma Su Kyi is an English man's wife. That is good enough and that is the most important thing. The English woman's husband is also as important as the Englishman's wife. Saw Ba Oo Gyi from KNDO and many other Shan leaders who married to European women. The, " British Connection " should I dsay. She lives in England, she speaks, read and write English as if its her mother's tongue. She thinks , behave and does, and sees things in English way.

She was awarded the Noble price, not because she shouts for democracy and human rights. There are many people in many parts of the world who shouts the same., but they did not get it. It was awarded to her with the recommendation of the western democratic countries. She received this award for the her defiance against military government of Myanmar. She was awarded for not paying her respect to the Myanmar leaders who fought against the British and fell. She was awarded for stopping others from paying respect to the leaders including her own father Ko Aung San who are lying dead at Azarni Baikmhan. The leaders who paid their lives to gain independent from the Brits.

When she decided not go to the Azarni Baitmhan that was translated as she avoided the confrontation with the army, which interpreted as non violence ways and so on.

Yet on her own she went to the Azarni Baitmhan and paid her respect. She did not refused SLORC/SPDC invitation. Nobody had to drag her out of her house. That is Ma Su Kyi., a pure bald faced hypocrite.

If you go back to that time around 1991 you will find that one Leonard Nicholas who was one off consul for Norway and some Scandinavian countries .was arrested for possession of some illegal communication equipments and was put in prison and he died in the prison. Norway and respective countries picked up on that to go against SLORC /SPDC.

You also know that Norway allowed the opposition radio station DVB (Democratic Voice of Burma) stationed and broadcasting from Oslo, Norway and recently introduced television programmes via satellite .

The dogs are to bark and to bite. In their mind they are protecting their masters, they are defending their masters. Anybody can be their master who feeds them. Some times dogs are more loyal to their masters then human. In a way they are doing a good job. What can you expect of them? Who said the world is perfect? When the dog is lamed it could be put down. That's the western way.

Ma Su Kyi is trap in her own corner. She cannot move. She is in straight jacket put on her by the west. She is a danger to the nation, to the people. When and if she is out something undesirable might happen. A horse which comes out of the stable has to be careful, its dangerous. It has nothing to do with SPDC. Her commitments, her obligation to the west are putting her in the trap. She is a remote controlled robot, very old type. She cannot think on her own , she has no idea on her own , she has no vision of her own. She has to take instructions and orders from outside.

She used to received her instructions and orders through BBC. , through British Diplomats in Yanagon. Then she was so alert and active. Now I think she been cut off , that is why, Ma Su Kyi is a dead duck.

To use your own words in the past you don't have to be rocket scientists., Be a good boy, be a pet if possible, say a few sweet words, such as democracy and human rights. Accuse somebody of being Nazi, or storm troopers. Or Enemy number one common enemy etc. etc. Noble price will come to you automatically. Be prepared to destroy your country and then sell it for a piece of Gold.

Ma Su Kyi is not the only one Polaris. Look at Gorbachev, for his Perestroika and Glasnost, for letting the Berlin Wall down braking U.S.S.R.into pieces.

In olden days in Myanmar before independent there were so many anglophile and ICS, Sir Paw Tun , Sir Maung Gyi, Sir Maung Galay, Sir this and Sir that. Lady this and Lady that as well, the puppets of the British who were happy to sell the country and the people for 30 pieces of silver or one piece of Gold. .

Ma Suu Kyi while collecting Gold in the name of freedom and democracy will let the people of Myanmar suffer. Well that you know that and I know that , do the people know, how much do they know, that is the question.

Too many awards she receives means too much weight on her, she can hardly not stand up straight. She is in the tight spot means she cannot afford a slightest mistake. She dares not move at all for she is afraid she will make mistake. Consider she is a goner, sinking in the sand.

" Thu Sa Sarr Ye Mha " that's a good one. Ma Su Kyi has been bribed from left and right from top and bottom. She has been eaten " Thu San " Who is that "Thu". Whose been receiving these awards on her behalf, I am not sure. Our Myanmar history told me that when our King Thibaw signed an agreement or a treaty to trade with France, British could not take it any more they had to invade Mandalay and take the King away.

Ma Su Kyi has been shouting for help. Is she inviting them willingly to take Myanmar? By accepting these awards , by whose authority ? By the authority of FREEDOM? In my view she is a corrupt one already. She sold her soul to the devil. Does she know that? Her father Ko AUng did not sell his soul though he had a big chance and opportunity to do so when Lord Louis Mount Batten offered him the rank of Inspector General of British Burma Army in Burma .

Myanmar is still standing straight, because there is not much foreign investments in Myanmar, but South Africa had which were the targets for economic sanctions. South Africa could not take it when former colonial master UK and others put pressures on SA.'s Botha or De Klerk regime.

I hope I have answered your questions. Have a nice day

Thunderbolts.

=====

Re:Myanmar for a piece of Gold?

Now, she's suffering. They could have done better if she had had political skill during grace period, I mean shortly after landslide win, but she had chosen to hit the wall several times. Remember, military will response the way military does - period?

With her slanted beady little reddened eyes - flickering a thousand times - shining out of the darkness and her teeth bared, the left labors under the mistaken impression that she's showing 50mil poor burmese people an example of her courageous will to fight against all odds and unfairness. Instead, what majority people are witnessing is nothing but a pack of snarling rats backed into a corner and burning itself with huge frustration, noland nld!

=====

Re:Myanmar for a piece of Gold?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/04/27 03:16

Dear M Than,

You are right. In Myanmar the saying is " Atutt Kyuu- Beloo Phytit " She was blinded with democracy, she was blinded with the praises , because she never expect such a high profile in her life. Another Myanmar saying is " Ma Myin Buu - Muu Myit Htin " She did not touch the ground she was floating in the air, she enjoyed it, she thoroughly enjoyed it. With the backing fro outside which she relies on, she thinks nobody else is a human being but her.

The oursiders also thuinik she is the one and only human being in Myanmar 54 million are animals or other beings.

In another word , she's was out of her mind, if not crazy. She does not know who she is or what she is, she does not who the people are, she does not know what the country is. She does not know who her friends or who her enemies are.

She was surrounded by the ignorant, she depends on them. That was the democracy ,she understands , right or wrong , good or bad or common sense had no room in democracy.

She is seen as saviour, messiah, " Ke -tin- shin "by some. But as the saying goes she is a " Pyin Nyar Shi" - Thadi Phytit Khe ". What she was doing was opposite to her own ideology. She has to suffer because she makes the people suffers. The people means young and old and sick. Monks Clergy people guilty and innocent, indiscriminately she makes all of them suffer. She has to suffer. she has to pay the price, she won't get away with it. That is the teaching of Buddha. Otherwise Buddha is no Buddha. .

She has not come to realisation. She does not realise how wrong she was. She does not care to correct her mistakes. She is " Da Zaut Kan- Da Zutt Htore" Opposing against SPDC and making 54 mil people suffer by her calls for economic sanctions, no tourists, no loans, no investments.

Her attitude to day is, " Khway Phytit Mha - Chee Ma Kyaut "

Still she can contribute to the nation as ordinary person. I know she can do a lot for the nation and the people. But as the saying goes " Min Thar Gyi - Malote Ya Lo - Pan Ma Gyi Phaut " its up to her and it is her own look out.

Sr. Gen. Than Shwe has ask her to call for lifting sanctions. It was for the nation, for the people. That alone showed that SG Than Shwe recognised her as she is regard her as a worthy opponent, but she ignored him.

If she is so brave , she should commit suicide, like Judas did. she should not let the people suffer. Suffering is the middle name of people of Myanmars.

Now she may be learning what a suffering is, and also the cause of suffering, and the secession of suffering.

I only hope she will be enlightened soon, after all she is our own sister.

Regards,

Thunderbolts.

=====