It is quiet clear about the differences of above pictures.
How people treat others?

Do you know why they are taking time to response? They are thinking ways how to dodge the truth. Deceitful people can never confront the truth. The picture tells a thousand words. They knows the truth but they want to hide it, ignore and dodge it. All of them are like the people who squats on the ground and worship the military men like Gods. The writers you mention are same like the people who squats on the ground looking UP to their evil masters who are standing tall and looking down at them. Especially Polio, his ass is grouded on one place and he cannot, willnot move nowhere like the polaris star (a star that is stuck in one place) which he discribe his situation in an indirect manner. This much I say for these 4 stooges, axehandlers, balls lickers.

Dear Patriots, and ZynnYaw, kosoe99, exodus 25,

You can pick any words and say it, you can pick any photos and publish them.

I can publish British deputy Prime Minister John Prescott, biffing and hitting a correspondent with his fist and damaged the camera. There are many other photos that we have seen. The acts of other leaders of other nation. Brawl in the Parliaments etc. A group of policemen ganging up on a suspect to the ground, and so on.

What are your photos suggests? For Myanmar they are nothing. Some Myanmar might accused you of trying to destroy Myanmar culture. Have you, any way?

Myanmar is Myanmar and Myanmar are Myanmar. Myanmar have their own culture, tradition, customs and their own way of life. This is one of them. They are not doing anything wrong. But in your eyes you may see the difference.

Who are doing wrong? Those who are sitting on the ground or those who are standing up.

If you are a Myanmar you will understand that. If you are not a Myanmar you won't. You are lucky to see the green standing, not sitting on golden chairs in the mud.

Did you see the ministers in the Thai Government when they are in front of their King. Go and tell them what they should or they should not do.

Remember they have their culture tradition and customs similar to Myanmar. Chulalongkorn could not help it since his first proclamation not to bow down.

Why don't you learn Myanmar way of life, sometime.

You have a right to say what you want. It will be nice, if you can say it in constructive way. Be a Myanmar, remember Myanmar are Myanmar and there are other Myanmar, all sorts of Myanmar.

Thunderbolts,

Dear Kosoe99,

I do see a big difference.

I do also think that you have a wrong impression of what I stand for. Do not lump me with the other guys. That is where you go wrong my friend.

I do not promote the policy of any government nor any political organization inside or outside the country. I lead my own non-political association and do what I can. It is transparent and incorporated under the US laws.

I am a free citizen and I exercise my right of free speech in this forum.

If you believe me, then it is good.

If you do not believe me, what can I say.

It does not deter me from working for the good of the people.

That is all that matters.

If one is a leader, one forges ahead, despite all odds and challenges.

If one is a follower, it is important to make sure that you are following the correct leadership.

What is most important in life is "intention" or "cetana".

In these days I was very busy with my friends from Myanmar chatting with them, exchanging the emails with them and I was not able to follow what is happening on AO forum.

Hi Kosoe99,

Yes there is a big difference between these two photos, however I don't know how to interpret them. People would say the first one is ugly and the second one is human. It depends on the person who decided to show these two photos – it is he who selected these photos. Therefore he should have selected them purposely – only him who will know it.

The journalists usually take many photos of Bill Clinton or Hilary Clinton or Barrack Obama at each occasion. When some particular events occur, they will look for the photos from their achieves – for instance – when Hilary Clinton lose in one primary elections, they will select Hilary's sad faced photo instead of her smiling photo. This is the way it work.

So I do not see for what reason, we should take important attention on these photos. Do you want to prove that Myanmar miitray is The Barbarians with this photo? not with this photo please look for more infos.

Dear kmyaing, you said "What is most important in life is "intention" or "cetana"."

Since the west invaded Iraq with good "intention" or "cetana", we should not be complaining.. :D

Anyway, this topic is not important for now...

Thanks all for responding my topic especially MokeHimKha, thunderbolts and kmyaing.

Now I'm waiting for Polaris' reply.

Here in Singapore, its almost 1am.

So good night all.
