WHO IS THIS YOUNG GIRL ?

Re:Who I am ?

Posted by Jacques - 2007/12/08 09:43

WHO I AM ?

I AM INDIRA GANDHI WITH MY FATHER'S FRIEND M. GANDHI

This week, I leave Limsing to explain the picture

This young girl is Indira Ganhdi,who would grow up to be known as the Iron Lady of India,sitting by the bed of Mohandas (Mahatma) Ganhdi as he recovers from one of his protest fasts.

They were both however not related, legally or by bloodline. The Mahatma nevertheless did play a significant influence in her life.

The Mahatma visits to her parents Jawahalal and Kamala Nehru convinced them to the great cause of Indian independence from the British Empire. Jawahalal Nehru would be the first Prime Minister of an Independent India in 1947.

In 1942 Indira married a journalist, Ferosa Gandhi who as far as I know was not related to Mohandas Gandhi. Between 1966 and 1977 Indira became the Prime Minister of India, an event which is a tremendous boost to the status of women in India, who were traditionally subservant to men.

Again in 1980, Indira was re-elected as Prime Minister. She was assassinated in 1984.

WHO I AM ?

I AM EMILIO AGUILNADO

It strange that no Filipino user has given my name.

Here is what Zia wrote about me :

He is Emilio Aguinaldo y Famy (March 22, 1869 – February 6, 1964) was a Filipino general, politician, and independence leader. He played an instrumental role in Philippine independence during the Philippine Revolution against Spain and the Philippine-American War that resisted American occupation. He eventually pledged his allegiance to the US government.

>In the Philippines, Aguinaldo is considered to be the country's first and the youngest Philippine President, though his government failed to obtain any foreign recognition.

WHO I AM ?

I AM POL POT

I am Saloth Sar, born 1925, best known to the rest of the world as Pol Pot, the Number One of the Khmer Rouge.

At 20 I went to Paris to study and discovered Marxism. After, I returned to Cambodia, I became leader of the Cambodian Communist Party by 1962. It is Prince Norodom Sihanouk the ruler of Cambodia who nicknamed us Khmer rouge.

On Spring 1975, the ex French Indochina fell under the Communists. Laos and Vietnam supported by Moscow and me by China.

I launched what I called the Year Zero or that others called the Killing Field who caused the lives of millions of Cambodians.

This nightmare had its end in 1979 with the invasion of Cambodia by Vietnam and I was obliged to flee in the jungle where I died in 1998 under house arrest by other Khmer rouge

WHO I AM ?

I AM NORODOM SIHANOUK

Here are the explanation given by Limsing1958 :

I am His Majesty King Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia, born, October 31, 1922. Crowned in 1941. I went into exile in 1952 and refused to return home until the French granted Cambodia full independence on November 9, 1953.

>During the tumultuous years of the Vietnam War across the border, I worked hard to maintain a precarious balance between the great powers of the United States of America, Soviet Union and China to preserve peace in my Kingdom. However, my gallant effort was shattered when I was deposed by the American backed Lon Nol in a military coup in 1970. Lon Nol in turn was defeated by Pol Pot's Khmer Rouge in 1975 who turned Cambodia into a killing field. The Vietnamese invasion of Cambodia and the ouster of the Khmer Rouge in 1978 mercifully ended the nightmare of the killing field.

I finally returned to Cambodia in 1991 after thirteen years in exile and was reinstated as King of Cambodia in 1993.

I abdicate on 7 October 2004

WHO I AM ?

I AM JAMES BROOKE, THE FIRST WHITE RAJA OF SARAWAK

Here are the explanation given by Limsing1958 :

I am Sir James Brooke, born 29 April 1803.

I am the original White Raja of Sarawak, currently a 124,450 square kilometer member state in the Federation Of Malaysia, situated on the north western portion of the island of Borneo. The fictional character, Tuan (Lord) Jim, a novel by Joseph Conrad was inspired by me.

Legend has it that the territory of what is now Sarawak was gradually given to me by the Sultan of Brunei as a series of rewards for helping the Sultan destroy the pirates in the seas around the island in a long drawn out war. As more territory was ceded to me, the Sultanate of Brunei was eventually reduced to the size it is now.

>The truth is that I was was an empire builder for the British just as much as Sir Stamford Raffles or Robert Clive of India were. I helped the Sultan put down an uprising by the Dayaks after which I turned my guns around and threatened the Sultan. To preserve his independence, the Sultan gradually ceded territories to me.

I died in England on 11 June 1868, officially unmarried (in fact I preferred men) and was succeeded by my nephew, Sir Charles Anthoni Johnson-Brooke.

WHO I AM ?

To see this week contest, go at the bottom of this page

I AM HEDEKI TOJO, JAPANESE PRIME MINISTER AND WAR CRIMINAL

Born on 30th December 1884, I joined the Japanese Army and my service included periods in Switzerland and Germany.

I belonged the Kwantung Army's in charge of Manchukuo and have been its chief of staff (May1937-May 1938).

In May 1938, I was appointed vice minister of war, then returned to the armed services and took command of the army's aviation.

I held extreme right-wing views and was a supporter of Nazi Germany. In July 1941 I was appointed minister of war, advocating an aggressive foreign policy.

Prime minister on 16th October 1941, I ordered the attack on Pearl Harbor on 7th December, 1941. As well as prime minister I also held the posts of minister of war, home minister and foreign minister. From February 1944 I was also Commander in Chief of the General Staff.

I resigned from office after the loss of Saipan in July 1944. I shot myself in the chest just before to be arrested by the US Military in 1945. I survived and after being nursed back to health (see the picture), I was tried as a war criminal and executed on 23rd December 1948.

To see this week contest, go at the bottom of this page

I AM YANG LIWEI, THE FIRST CHINESE SEND IN SPACE

He is the explanation given by Limsing 1958

I am Lieutenant-Colonel Yang Liwei, born June 21, 1965 in Suizhong, Liaoning Province, China. I am the first "taikonaut" in space aboard Shenzhou 5, thus making the People's Republic of China the third country after the Soviet Union and the United States of America, with the capability to send people into safely space.

I joined the People's Liberation Army (PLA) when I was 18 years old and became a fighter pilot. Selected as an astronaut candidate in 1988, I was launched into space aboard a Shenzhou 5 spacecraft on October 15, 2003 then promoted full Colonel

Yet I am not the first Chinese attempt to travel into outer space. In the 16th century during the Ming Dynasty a scholar/scientist, Wan Hu attached numerous giant rockets to his sedan chair in an attempt to go to the moon. He got in his sedan chair and had his servants lit the rockets. There was a tremendous explosion and when the smoke cleared, no trace of Wan Hu was ever seen again. Some Chinese still believe he is the man in the Moon.

WHO I AM ?

I AM CHIANG CHING-KUO, PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND SON OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK

He is the explanation (extracts) given by Limsing1958

I am Chiang Ching-kuo, born 27 April 1910, Fenghua, Zhejiang Province, China, as the eldest son to the first wife (Mao Fumei) of Chiang Kai-shek, the man seated on this picture taken in 1948 on the right is my father, the Generalissimo and leader of Kuomintang, the party in control of China.

When I was a child, my father was very authoritarian. In 1929, I was send to Moscow to study communism. I stayed 12 years and Married a native Belarussian. I return to China on April 1937

On December 10, 1949, my father and I were forced to flee Chengdu where we made our last stand against the advancing victorious armies of the Communist Party of China. We retreated to the island of Taiwan.

In Taiwan I have been vice-premier (1969-1972), premier (1972-1978) and President of the Republic of China from 1978 until I passed away on 13 January 1988.

During my tenure, I ended martial law, allowed the freedom of speech and political dissent and set Taiwan on the course of democratic reforms. Today Taiwan is one of the world's freest, most advanced and richest countries. As I looked across the Taiwan Strait, I cannot help but wonder about what might have been.

But could things have been different? As a means to power my father had allied himself to the most powerful triad society in China, the Green Gang headed by Big Ears Du, divorced my mother and renounced his Buddhist faith to marry Soong Mei-ling who was of a wealthy Christian family, a faith which most Chinese view with suspicion. With a mafia type organization fully embeded in the KMT, it was no surprise that China was plagued with corruption and when I tried to crack down on the corruption, I was forced to back off by my step mother whose family must obviously be profiting from it.

WHO I AM ?

I AM MOHAMMAD HATTA, A LEADER OF INDONESIA INDEPENDENCE

He is the explanation (completed) given by Zia

I am Mohammad Hatta. I was born on August 12, 1902, in Bukittinggi, West Sumatra, Dutch East Indies (now Indonesia). He was Indonesia's first vice-president, later also serving as the country's Prime Minister.

Since my early education, I studied in Dutch schools in Indonesia and despite my efforts to gain Indonesia independence, I studied in the Netherlands from 1921 until 1932. But on December 1933, the Dutch authorities send me in exile in Flores, and freed by the Japanese in March 1942.

Known as "The Proclamator", I and a number of Indonesians, including Sukarno, fought for the independence of Indonesia from the Dutch. It's why we collaborated with the Japanese.

After Sukarno proclaimed the Independence, becoming the first president, I was elected vice-president on August 18, 1945. In addition I was appointed Prime Minister and minister of Defense in December in December 1948

But I disagreed with Sukarno policies and resigned on December 1, 1956, becoming a critic of Sukarno. I died on March 14, 1980

I am often remembered as Bung Hatta ('Bung' is an affectionate title used to address colleagues, popular in the early 1900s and is still used by Indonesians).

WHO I AM ?

I AM MARTIN LEE, FOUNDER OF HONG KONG DEMOCRATIC PARTY

He is the explanation (shorted) given by Limsing1958

I am Martin Lee, (Li Zhuming in Pinyin Chinese), born June 8, 1938 in the then British controlled Hong Kong.

I was a pharmacist in France, has a BA degree in English and Philosophy and was a teacher for 3 years. I then went on to study law in Lincoln's Inn in London and was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1979, and was the chairman of the Hong Kong Bar Association from 1980 to 1983. All these must have prepared me to become elected as a member of the Legislative Council of Hong Kong (LegCo) and a member of the Hong Kong Basic Law Drafting Committee from 1985 to 1989 as part of the agreement between the PRC and Great Britain for handing over the control of Hong Kong back to the Chinese in 1997.

However the brutal crackdown of the student's democracy movement in Tiananmen Square in 1989 convinced me that the Beijing leadership is not in favour of democracy and human rights. Hence I helped to forme the Hong Kong Democratic Party in 1994 and was its chairman from 1994 to 2002 with the expressed purpose of promoting democracy and human rights in Hong Kong and China. A severe critic of the leadership in Beijing (I even called for

WHO I AM ?

I AM LIN BIAO

I was born as Lin Yurong on December 5, 1907 and attended Whampao Military Academy before taking part to the Northern Expedition in the National Revolutionary Army

After the KMT-CCP split, I joined Mao Zedong and Zhu De in the Soviet Republic in Jiangsu and for the Long March

During the Civil War, I am the one who captured Manchuria and entered in Beijing. Of bad health, my star rose when Peng Dehuai has been dismissed in 1959. I became Defense Minister and politicized the People Liberation Army. I compiled some Mao writing in what will be known the Little Red Book.

During the Cultural Revolution, I was a strong support of Mao Zedong and became his official successor in 1969

But, I am supposed to have planned the assassination of Mao Zedong. One thing is sure, my body was in a plane that crashed in Outer Mongolia on September 13, 1971, when, it is said, I tried to flee to Soviet Union

WHO I AM ?

To see this week contest, go down at the bottom of this page :cheer:

I AM KASTURBA, THE WIFE OF MOHANDAS GANDHI

I was born on 11th April 1869. My father was a well-to-do businessman

When Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi (Mahatma Gandhi) and I were both at a young tender age of 13, we were married. It was an arranged marriage. I was illiterate then, but Gandhi taught me to read and write. Throughout my life I was a steadfast companion to Gandhi in all his experiments in South Africa and India. My public life began after I joined my husband in South Africa in 1897. From 1904-14, I was the heart and soul of the 'Phoenix Settlement' and from Kasturbai I became Kasturba-mother (Ba) to the inmates. During the 1913 protest against working conditions for Indians in South Africa, I was arrested and sentenced to three months in a hard labor prison.

After we returned to India in 1915, on numerous subsequent occasions, I took Gandhi's place when he was under arrest, and was always closely associated with the struggle in India, giving encouragement to women volunteers. Although, I identified myself with my great husband, I did not accept his ideas unless I understood them and considered them right. Gandhi often had to work hard to convince me.

I was a deeply religious woman and following the ideologies of my husband I renounced all caste distinctions. I suffered from chronic bronchitis. The strict and tough regimen of ashram life took its toll and I caught pneumonia. On 22 February 1944 on Mahashivratri Day, because a severe heart attack, I breathed my last on the lap of her beloved husband.

People say that I was a delicate, small but elegant lady, she was simple, straightforward and methodical.

WHO I AM ?

I AM NGO DINH DIEM, FIRST PRESIDENT OF SOUTH VIETNAM

I was born on 3 January 1901, into an aristocratic, Roman Catholic family with close ties to the Emperor. I served in Emperor Bao Dai's administration under French colonial rule until 1933.

During and after World War II, I opposed both French colonial rule and the communist-led national independence movement. As independence forces battled the French, I spent several years in exile, gaining crucial American support in hopes of leading a postwar government.

With a strong US support, I became prime minister of South Vietnam in 1954 just as the defeated French forces left, with Bao Dai as head of state. On 23 October 1955, I organized a referendum on either re-establishing monarchy with Bao Bai or founding a republic with me as president. The result was largely rigged and I won

The peace accord called for elections in 1956 and unification of the divided country. With American support, Ngo cancelled the elections, knowing full well that Ho Chi Minh would have easily won the presidency.

Over the next seven years, I presided over an increasingly corrupt, nepotistic and repressive regime, systematically favoring the Catholics.

Communist guerrillas backed by North Vietnam launched a new rebellion, but a civil disobedience campaign led by the country's Buddhist monks contributed more directly to his downfall. Brutal persecution of the dissident monks in 1963 damaged the regime's already shaky international reputation.

With American support, Vietnamese generals overthrew me on 1st November 1963 and assassinate me the following day

WHO I AM ?

I AM JIME SINGYE WANGCHUCK KING OF BHUTAN (1974-2006)

Here is the explanation given by ZIA

I was born on November 11, 1955 and was the fourth Dragon King (Druk Gyalpo) of Bhutan from 1972 to 2006.

I acceded to the throne at the age of 17, in 1972, after the sudden death of my father, Jigme Dorji Wangchuck.

Also called "Druk Gyalpo" meaning "Dragon King", I was educated in Bhutan and the United Kingdom

When I was formally crowned on June 2, 1974 I was the youngest monarch in the world and the coronation was noted for inviting foreign dignitaries, thus signaling the end of the long isolation of the country.

In a royal edict issued on December 14, 2006, I announced that I would begin handing over power to his eldest son Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck immediately

I am married to four queens (all of whom are sisters) and has five sons and five daughters. Several of my children have been educated abroad.

WHO I AM ?

I AM HUA GUOFENG, THE SUCCESSOR OF MAO ZEDONG

I was born on February 16, 1921 with the name of Su Zhu in Shanxi province

I joined the Communist Party of China (CCP) in 1938 as a part of counter-Japanese resistance, after having joined the Long March in 1936. After having served in the 8th Route Army during 12 years under General Zhu De's command, I became propaganda chief for a county Party committee in 1947.

I moved with the PLA to Hunan in 1949 and remained there as a local official until 1971. I participated in the 1959 Lushan Conference as a member of the Hunan Provincial Party delegation, defending communes and the Great Leap Forward. Shortly thereafter, I was named provincial party secretary and was elected a Full member of the 9th Central Committee in 1969.

After Zhou Enlai's death in on January 8, 1976, I succeeded him as Premier of the People's Republic of China. Before his death, on September 9, the same year Mao Zedong named me as his heir for chairmanship of the Communist Party of China, to the dismay of the ultra-left led by Mao's wife Jiang Qing and the Gang of Four who, on October 6th, less than a month after Mao's death, I ordered the arrest as a deal with reformists

But because of my insistence on continuing the Maoist line (I wanted to think, to speak and to act as Mao) , so I was an obstacle for the reformists led by Deng Xiaoping. I was myself outmaneuvered when they took control of the party in December 1978 and progressively obliged me into early retirement giving up the premiership to Zhao Ziyang in September 1980, then the chairmanship to Hu Yaobang one year later with Deng Xiaoping as the real power behind the curtain. In 2002, I officially lost my seat on the Central Committee of the CCP

I passed away on August 20, 2008 in apparent obscurity with no big ceremony for my funerals

Re:Who I am ?

WHO I AM ?

I AM DITH PRAN, CAMBODIAN PHOTOJOURNALIST (THE KILLING FIELD)

Born on September 27, 1942, in Angkor Wath, famous for its historic temples, I worked in the tourist business until the war spilled over from Vietnam. I then found work as a war correspondent.

Times correspondent, I covered the encroaching civil war in Cambodia from 1972 to 1975. While Americans and Cambodian dependents were evacuated from Phnom Penh on April 12, 1975, we stayed to cover the fall of the capital to the communist Khmer Rouge.

Shortly after the takeover, I saved the life of Sydney and two other journalists held for execution by persuading the Khmer Rouge that the three Westerners were neutral French journalists and took refuge in the French embassy.

Exiled to the killing fields, the forced labor camps in the Cambodian countryside, I endured four years of starvation and torture. In October of 1979, I escaped to Thailand and to freedom. But the Cambodian holocaust has changed my life forever when I lost over 50 relatives by the Khmer Rouge, including my father, three brothers, one sister, and my mother died later of malnutrition.

From 1980, I worked as a photojournalist with The New York Times in the United States, and in 1986, I became an American citizen. My wartime life was portrayed in the award-winning movie, The Killing Fields.(1984)
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Killing_Fields_\(film\))

I also campaigned for recognition of the Cambodian Genocide victims, especially as founder and president of The Dith Pran Holocaust Awareness Project and as Goodwill Ambassador by the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees since 1985

I Used to say: "Part of my life is saving life. I don't consider myself a politician or a hero. I'm a messenger. If Cambodia is to survive, she needs many voices."

WHO I AM ?

I AM CHIANG WEI-KUO (OR WEGO CHIANG) ADOPTIVE SON OF PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SEK

I was born in Tokyo on October 6, 1916 when Chiang Kai-shek and the KMT was exiled to Japan by the Beiyang Government. I have long been speculated to be an offspring of Tai Chi-tao and a Japanese woman, Shigematsu Kaneko. According to popular gossip, Tai believed knowledge of his Japanese tryst would destroy his marriage and his career. Yao Yecheng, Chiang's wife at the time, raised me as her own and I called Tai my "Dear Uncle" While I previously discredited any such claims and insisted I was a legitimate son of Chiang Kai-shek until my later years(1988), when I admitted that I was adopted by President Chiang Kai-shek.

I studied at Soochow University, then Chiang sent me to Germany for a military education at the Munich Military Academy. I completed specialized Alpine warfare training, thus earning the coveted Gebirgsjäger (The elite Wehrmacht Mountain Troop) Edelweiss sleeve insignia. I was promoted to Unteroffizier, also known as Fahnenjunker, or Officer Candidate (see picture)

I commanded a Panzer during the 1938 Austrian Anschluss, leading a tank into that country; subsequently, I was promoted to Lieutenant of a Panzer unit awaiting to be sent into Poland. Before I was given the mobilization order, I was recalled to China.

There, I became a Major at 28, a Lieutenant Colonel at 29, a Colonel at 32, and later, a Major General. I was in charge of a M4 Sherman tank battalion during 1948 Nationalist-Communist campaign against Deng Xiaoping's troops, scoring some early victories. In 1949 I moved my armor regiment to Taiwan. In 1957, after my first wife died, I re-married, to Chiu Ju-hsueh, also known as Chiu Ai-lun, a daughter of Chinese and German parents. Chiu gave birth to my only son.

After my half brother Chiang Ching-kuo's death, I was a political rival of native Taiwanese Lee Teng-hui, and I strongly opposed Lee's Taiwan localization movement. I ran as vice-president with Taiwan Governor Lin Yang-kang in the 1990 presidential election, but we lost.

I had very bad relation with Chiang Kai-shek second wife and widow Soong May-ling

I died on September 22, 1997)at the age of 82 from kidney failure.

26 October 2008

I AM JOSHUA BENJAMIN JEYARETNAM, OLDEST OPPOSITION LEADER IN SINGAPORE

Here is the explanation given by Limsing1958

I am Joshua Benjamin Jeyaretnam, born January 5, 1926 in Jaffna, Ceylon, now Sri Lanka. I was trained as a lawyer in the University College London, England before making Singapore my permanent home.

I was the leader of the Worker's Party of Singapore and in 1981 I won the Anson Parliamentary seat, thus breaking the People's Action Party's monopoly on power to become Singapore's first opposition MP. I won the same seat again in 1984.

I was a severe critic of the one-party state system of Singapore and became a thorn in the side of Minister Mentor Lee Kuan Yew. My quixotic efforts to effect political and social change in Singapore have even earned me the title "the Grand Old Man of opposition politics".

To get rid of me the PAP successfully brought me down through a series of politically-motivated legal charges. In 1986, I was expelled from the legislature until 1991 and disbarred from legal practice. By 2000 I was declared bankrupt when I failed to keep up payments in a series of libel cases, such as the charges of having defamed prime minister Goh Chok-tong and ten other members of the PAP

WHO I AM ?

I AM GAO XINGJIAN, FIRST AND ONLY ONE CHINESE NOBEL PRIZE FOR LITERATURE

Born on January 4, 1940, my mother was an amateur actress who stimulated my interest in the theatre and writing. I got a degree in French in 1962. During the Cultural Revolution (1966-76) I was sent to a re-education camp and felt it necessary to burn a suitcase full of manuscripts. Not until 1979 could I publish my work and travel abroad, to France and Italy as a painter

During the period 1980-87 I published short stories, essays and dramas in literary magazines in China and also four books which gave rise to a violent polemic on "modernism" particularly In Search of a Modern Form of Dramatic Representation (1987).

Several of my experimental and pioneering plays - inspired in part by Brecht, Artaud and Beckett - were produced at the Theatre of Popular Art in Beijing. My theatrical debut with Signal Alarm (1982) was a tempestuous success, and the absurd drama which established my Bus Stop (1983) was condemned during the campaign against "intellectual pollution". Wild Man (1985) also gave rise to heated domestic polemic and international attention

In 1986, The Other Shore was banned and since then none of my plays have been performed in China. To avoid harassment I left China and settled down in Paris 1988. After publication of Fugitives, which takes place against the background of the massacre of Tiananmen Square, I was declared persona non grata by the regime and my works were banned. I got French citizenship in 1998 where I write in French and Chinese while painting a lot. My main novel is Soul Mountain, completed in 1989

I'm not involved in politics, but that does not prevent me from criticizing the policies of Communist China. I say what I want to say. If I have chosen to live in exile, it is to be able to express myself freely without constraint

The Chinese communist authorities always complained that never a Chinese author has been selected for Nobel Prize in literature. When I got it in 2000 they were furious. After the decision of the Nobel committee China's Foreign Ministry called the award a political maneuver the nation took no pride in

WHO I AM ?

I AM MYEONGSEONG, THE LAST QUEEN OF KOREA

Born under the name of Min on October 19, 1851, the daughter of Min Ch'irok, a government official, I was made the royal consort in 1866 at the urging of Lady Min, consort of Hungsn Taewngun and mother of King Kojong. I became the first official wife of King Gojong.

My resentment and hatred was soon directed mostly at Taewongun, who exercised governmental powers as the regent. I concentrated on having members of the Min family appointed to key financial, personnel, and military positions of the Korean government to oppose the rule of the regent. As the many political blunders of the regent Taewngun became evident, I helped King Kojong inaugurate his personal rule. Followers of Taewngun were summarily removed from power positions

The Japanese considered me as an obstacle against its overseas expansion. Efforts to remove me from the political arena, orchestrated through failed rebellions prompted by my father-in-law Heungseon Daewongun (an influential regent working with the Japanese), compelled me to take a harsher stand against Japanese influence.

After Japan's victory in the First Sino-Japanese War, I advocated stronger ties between Korea and Russia in an attempt to block Japanese influence in Korea. Miura Goro, the Japanese Minister to Korea backed the faction headed by my father-in-law Daewongun, whom he considered to be more sympathetic to Japanese interests.

At about 5:30 of October 8, 1895, a group of Japanese military and people in Japanese attires infiltrated the Gyeongbok Palace with little difficulty because the Palace was under Japanese protection. They killed the commander of a guard unit, and his men, who blocked the entrance to the palace.

King Kojong bitterly protested the Japanese intrusion into his private quarters but he was pushed down by the Japanese. Another group of the assassins rushed to my sleeping area. I was sexually molested then killed. The assassins wrapped me in a blanket then burned my body in a nearby bush.

WHO I AM ?

I AM DIPA NUSANTARA AIDIT (1923-1965), LEADER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF INDONESIA (PKI)

Im am Dipa Nusantara Aidit, born under the name of Ahmad Aidit on July 1923 on Bangka Island. I was nicknamed Bang Amat by his little brothers, I was raised on Dutch colonial education, later coming into contact with Marxist political theory through the Indies Social Democratic Association, later the Communist Party of Indonesia. In 1945, I served as one of the brief, bloody war for independence

Though a Marxist and a member of Comintern, I submitted to Indonesian president Sukarno's Marhaenism policy and allow the party to grow without any overt intentions towards power. In return for my support of Sukarno, I rose to the position of Secretary-General of the PKI in 1951

Under my leadership, the PKI became the 3rd largest Communist party in the world, behind those of the Soviet Union and China. I set up a number of mass organizations including the Pemuda Rakyat for the youth, and Gerwani a women's league

During the 1955 general election campaign, the PKI drew a large following. In the next decade, it became a leftist rival to conservative elements among the Muslim political parties and the Army. In 1963, the PKI began a unilateral action of land reforms in which villagers seized land belonging to upper classes By 1965, the PKI had become the largest political party in Indonesia with an estimated 20 million members, and I became bolder in overtures towards power

After the attempted 30 September 1965 coup (Gestapu) later officially blamed on the PKI, I fled to Yogyakarta, where he was arrested and shot on 22 November by pro-government forces led by General Suharto

WHO I AM ?

I AM COMMANDER AHMAD SHAH MASSOUD, AFGHAN LION OF PANJSHIR (1953-2001)

Here are the explanations given by the winners

I am Ahmad Shah Massoud, born September 2nd 1953 in Jangalak, Panjshir Valley, Afghanistan.

A well educated multi-lingual man, particularly in French. I was a Kabul University engineering student turned military Tajik leader who played a leading role in driving the Soviet army out of Afghanistan, earning the nickname of "Lion of Panjshir". I was the most pro-Western and popular of the anti-Soviet resistance leaders

I became Defense Minister of Afghanistan in 1992 under President Burhanuddin Rabbani. Following the collapse of Rabbani's government and the rise of the Taliban regime, with my men, I took refuge in the northern mountains where we continue our lonely struggle against the Taliban and their extreme version of Islam. I became the military leader of the United Islamic Front for the Salvation of Afghanistan

In April 2001 I addressed the European Parliament and warned that the Taliban and Al-Qaeda were planning a major terrorist attack against the West. In the U.S, Afghanistan was long forgotten and the warning went unheeded

On September 9, 2001 I was assassinated by an alleged al-Qaeda human bomb with explosives worn in a belt. The assassin was posing as a cameraman conducting an interview with him, allegedly with the complicity of Abdul Rasul Sayyaf

The following year, I was named "National Hero" by the order of Afghanistan's President Hamid Karzai. Many Afghans affectionately call me "Amer Sahib e Shaheed" translating to " (Our) Martyred Commander." September 9th, the date of my death is observed as a national holiday, and known as Massoud Day in Afghanistan

I AM QUEEN SIRIKIT OF THAILAND

I came into this world on August 12th 1932, of noble parentage, and was named Mom Rajawongse Sirikit which means "Glory and Splendor of the Kittiyakara Family". This name was given to the baby girl by my relative H.M. King Prajadipok (Rama VII)

My father was a member of the Thai Diplomatic Corps, and was based at the Embassy in Washington D.C., so I lived with my grandparents in Bangkok, until such time my father came back. After I attended Rajini School, and, later, the St Francis Xavier Convent School until I was 13 years of age, in 1948, I followed my parents to Paris where her father was the Ambassador to the Republic of France

I met the young King Bhumibol Adulyadej when he was completing his studies Lausanne, Switzerland, and used to visit Paris. We became friends then more closed. The friendship blossomed into a committed, serious, love affair Our engagement was officially announced on July 19, 1949. A wedding date was set for April 28, 1950. We were married with all the pomp and ceremony of Thai Royal Tradition. Few days later, on May 5, is was the Coronation of His Majesty King Bhumibol of Thailand and, on the same day, I was honored and elevated to be Her Majesty Queen Sirikit of Thailand

Since that day in 1950, I have been devoted to my husband The King and I have, likewise, given devoted service to the People of Thailand. I have lovingly performed my Royal responsibilities or duties and has been an inspiration to the People of the Kingdom

WHO I AM ?

I AM YUAN SHI KAI, PRESIDENT OF CHINA (1912 –1916)

Here are the explanations given by Choco

I was born on September 16, 1859, Xiangcheng, Henan province, China

Chinese army leader, I began my military career serving in Korea in the 1880s. In 1885 I was made Chinese commissioner at Seoul. My promotion of China's interests contributed to the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese War (1894 – 1895) The war destroyed China's navy and army, and the task of training a new army fell to me.

When my division was the only one to survive the Boxer Rebellion (1900), my political stature increased. I played a decisive part in China's modernization and defense programs and enjoyed the support of the empress dowager Cixi.

On her death I was dismissed, only to be called back following the overthrow of the Qing dynasty in 1911 – 1912, when, in March, I became the first president of the new republic; Sun Yat-sen had previously served as the provisional president.

Impatient with the new National Assembly, I ordered the assassination of Song Jiaoren, leader of the Nationalist Party in 1913.

In January 1915, the Japanese presented their infamous Twenty One Demands. If they had all been granted, China would have been transformed into a Japanese protectorate. Therefore, I submitted to all but the most radical of them.

I quelled a subsequent revolt, but my efforts to found my own dynasty (1915 – 1916) failed.

I have not been well treated by either foreign or Chinese historians, although foreign historians were not as vituperative as the Chinese. I am usually portrayed as an unscrupulous political operator, whose ethics were governed by personal ambition and political expediency.

I died on June 6, 1916, before to be proclaimed emperor

WHO I AM ?

I AM KIM IL-SUNG FOUNDER OF COMMUNIST KOREA

. http://www.asiaobserver.com/images/fbfiles/images/2008_12_21-a574d48187d30d0c6cc61807435f32bc.jpg

Born into a peasant family on April 15, 1912, in Mangyondae, Korea, I was still a child when my parents left Japan-occupied Korea for Manchuria where I attended Chinese schools.

In 1932, I became the leader of a small group of Korean partisans, which I led in various raids against Japanese outposts in Korea. In 1941, I fled Manchuria for the Soviet Far East where I received military training
In 1945, I returned to my homeland as a major in the Soviet army. The Soviets put me in charge of the formation of a provisional system of government in Soviet-occupied Korea. In 1948, I became the first premier of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea.

On June 25, 1950, I launched an invasion of the South. But it was only thanks to a massive Chinese intervention that my regime survived the U.S.-led counteroffensive in fall 1950

In 1993, my defense policy became a great concern for Washington when intelligence analysis estimated that North Korea was less than two years away from being able to strike South Korea and Japan with nuclear missiles. The ensuing crisis was eased in June 1994 when former U.S. President Carter persuaded me to freeze my program in return for an easing of international sanctions and talks with the United States about ending North Korea's international isolation

I died on the eve of these talks at age 82 on July 8, 1994, in Pyongyang, North Korea.

WHO I AM ?

I AM BENAZIR BHUTTO (1953-2008), TWICE PAKISTAN'S PRIME MINISTER

http://www.asiaobserver.com/images/fbfiles/images/2008_12_28-7b45a849067f728a0161bf1f1acd0c2a.jpg

Here are the explanations given by ZIA :

She is Benazir Bhutto who born on 21 June 1953 and died on 27 December 2007. She was a Pakistani politician who chaired the Pakistan Peoples Party PPP, a centre-left political party in Pakistan. Bhutto was the first woman elected to lead a Muslim state, having twice been Prime Minister of Pakistan 1988–1990 & 1993–1996. She was Pakistan's first and to date only female prime minister.

Bhutto was the eldest child of former prime minister Zulfikar Ali Bhutto, a Pakistani of Sindhi descent and Shia Muslim by faith, and Begum Nusrat Bhutto, a Pakistani of Iranian-Kurdish descent, similarly Shia Muslim by faith. Her paternal grandfather was Sir Shah Nawaz Bhutto, who came to Larkana District in Sindh before the independence from his native town of Bhatto Kalan, in the Indian state of Haryana.

Bhutto was sworn in as Prime Minister for the first time in 1988 at the age of 35, but was removed from office 20 months later under the order of then-president Ghulam Ishaq Khan on grounds of alleged corruption. In 1993 she was re-elected but was again removed in 1996 on similar charges, this time by President Farooq Leghari. She went into self-imposed exile in Dubai in 1998.

Bhutto returned to Pakistan on 18 October 2007, after reaching an understanding with President Pervez Musharraf by which she was granted amnesty and all corruption charges were withdrawn. She was assassinated on 27 December 2007, after departing a PPP rally in the Pakistani city of Rawalpindi, two weeks before the scheduled Pakistani general election of 2008 where she was a leading opposition candidate. The following year she was named one of seven winners of the United Nations Prize in the Field of Human Rights.

The Pakistani government honoured Bhutto on her birth anniversary by renaming the Islamabad International Airport after her. Prime Minister Yousuf Raza Gilani, a member of Bhutto's PPP also asked President Musharraf to pardon convicts on death row on her birthday in honour of Bhutto.
