
Reputable, what reputable, my foot?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/05/15 04:55

Dear Patriots,

Burmanet editor was very kind to alerted us by sending the following email to its subscribers. Very nice of him. God bless him.

THE BURMANET NEWS
A listserv covering Burma
www.burmanet.org

.....~.....
From the Editor:

Many photos have been circulating around the internet depicting the damage and destruction caused by Cyclone Nargis. While many of these images are from reputable sources such as the Democratic Voice of Burma and the Associated Press, others in fact cannot be verified as having truly been taken from the Irrawaddy delta region. Shockingly gruesome photos of victims of the Asian tsunami of 2004 are circulating and being passed off as Burmese cyclone victims. This could have serious consequences, compounding the difficulty of the already complicated efforts to coax the Burmese regime to let in aid and aid workers. Therefore, we encourage you to be vigilant and practice caution when attributing anonymous photos about Cyclone Nargis. Be sure to examine the photo accreditation in order to ensure that the images you are viewing have come from a trusted source.

If in doubt, don't send it.

Regards,
Burmanet Editor

.....~.....
My dear Patriots,

We all know that most of the photos are not genuin long before he alerted us. Because we have seen many of these photos of the Asian Tsunami many times before. That is what is good about being living in this part of the world.

DVB is the same radio station which said no foreign correspondents are allow into the country by the regime. Their own men skipped into Myanmar from Thailand and saw the destroyed refugees camps and make shift rebels camps may be.

Refugees or not, rebels or not they are all human beings. But the radio station have to make sure what they really are., who they treally are. Why are the foreign correspondents not allowed to go in . Why are the aid not reaching to their destination in time apart from SPDC obstructions. What are other obstructions and why .

Why are foreign correspondents not allowed ? I don't know . The possiblity is what's the use whether they are allowed or not allowed , they will write anything they want, true or not, some may have already pre written scripts.

No, this radio and television station or foreign correspondents do not want to know the truth. As long as they can fill the air time with anything , as long as they can file anything to get a fee for their scripts. DVB may be "reputable" station by opposition. But not by all other Myanmars.

Besides , many Myanmars who are living in this part of the world are no stupids, not idiots. So nobody can fool them. Not even BBC or VOA let alone DVB. They are not stupid, they are not idiot that is why they are here. Many of them do not belong to opposition . They don't have to be . They are doing their business, and earning their own living in their professions. They are not living on the benefits and subsidies like some Myanmar opposition pests. They don't go in front of the Myanmar Embassies to shout one or two words against SPDC to qualify for food tickets. But thanks to Bamanet editor for alerting us.

The oppsition will do anything will say anything including. DVB. is an opposition radio & television station to discredit SPDC. When I saw the sentance saying " reputable sources such as the Democratic Voice of Burma ". I don;t know whether to laugh or to cry. And said to myself , " what reputation was this editor talking about " .

This radio and television station has been broacasting everything and anything negative about Myanmar and SPDC , negative remarks and comment against SPDC. Launching smear campaign against SPDC. Who are they working there, They may be Myanmars but are the Myanmars?

The same as any other " reputable " radio and television stations, BBC, VOA, RFA, supporters of SPDC, no liberal can apply for the job. No supporters of SPDC can go near them.

I have heard from reliable source, who remain to be anonymous, that all new recruits must be vetted, approved and endorsed by NCGUB or Sein WIn and the Gang, CIA of US and MI5 of UK.

What is " Reputation " mean to them I don't know.
What they are doping is as the Myanmar saying goes, " Myet Phyu Sait Ley - Sayar Kyite Lay " .

DVB wants to see Myanmar in trouble. So it stir things up. False news fake news. DVB will brocast anything against with the information fed to them by anonymous people , most of the are Kayins, Mons and Rohinjas and Yakhine insurgents and their families.

That was how George W Bush and Tony Blair went to war on Iraq.

Thanks again Bamarnet editor, well done, I mean it. All because you have made the picture of DVB very clear in a way.

Dear Thunderbolts,

3Ms - Merchant, Missionary and Military. Then Gunboat diplomacy, followed by 3 Anglo-Myanmar war. Myanmar has learned a lesson. Unfortunately Nargis has given them an excuse, now it is AID - ASSISTANCE, INTERFERE (Intervene) and DEMOCRACY (Regime Change).

With Exiles, UGs, 88s and all mercenary Medias clamoring for intervention by UN resolution under the guise of Humanitarian Relief, how can the Myanmar Government trust foreign AID, especially with conditions attached. Myanmar said it is willing to accept but not troops and foreign agencies freely into the affected areas. Foreign Agencies will need prior permission from the Government before being allowed into the disaster area, should the Government agree.

Yes it is sure that the exiles are manipulating world meida. I saw Moe Thee Zon on a TV channel. The Journalist was saying that he has been taken to Mow Thee Zon's house in Mae Sot so secretly because MTZ is a former student leader living at Mae Sot and is "WANTED" by the Myanmar military government and how MTZ is leading Anti-Junta movement form Mae Sot.

I do not know if this journalist is aware of what he is saying. But everybody knows that Moe Thee Zon is not living in Mae Sot but in United States.

May he is now visiting temporarily at Mae Sot now because he might think that things could be in favour of Regime Change as a consequence of Cyclone.

So if there a reputable exile media or international media?

Hi all, do u all know what is the death toll so far?
Is this death toll also fabricated by DVB?

You highlighted that DVB fabricated the news. Do you want to say MRTV do not do the fabrication?

Or they are allowed to do it? So we can't say anything about it?

If you agree that MRTV fabricate the news, then why r u only highlighting the foreign media?

I guess u only have one side of brain.. it that case ur brain capacity must quite small. am i right to say that? :D

by the way thunderbolts, why do u write "Yakhine"? isn't supposed to be "Rakhine"?

do u ever use ur brain to think about why Kayins, Mons and Rohinjas and Yakhine wanted to have insurgency?

see u again..

Re:Reputable, what reputable, my foot?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/05/16 05:09

kosoe99,

Fabricated or not, who care how many deaths are there? Do you? Was Aye Chan from DVB in Myanmar's disaster counting the deaths one by one? It may be less it may be more what can you do about it. The deaths are not lying there for you or somebody else to come and count them one by one.

Yakhine is Yakhine. Mon, Kayin insurgensts are insurgents. They may have their own reasons they may have their own excuse. Excuse are cheaper then reasons.

Your father did not make love to your mother to have you as kosoe99. He did not had you in his mind remember that, it happened. If it was not you it could be somebody else, your sister or your brother may be. Think about it if you have any brain.

My learned Thunderbolts,

i suggest u keep all ur posting in a recordable media which can last, say 60 years.
Before u die of, u pass it to ur grandson and leave a message only to read it on his/her 16th birthday.

I'm so all ur remaining relatives will suicide themselves on your grand son 16th birthday.

By the way, what is the death toll that government acknowledges?

Will these photographs change the death toll?

I can't see any sense in ur posting.

Get a brain.. ok? :D

Re:Reputable, what reputable, my foot?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/05/18 05:10

My dear kosoe99,

Myanmars say, " Amhe Ta Win WIn - Akin Da Byite Byite " don't go before me please.

How are u feeling, good or no good? Did it hurt u bad? Did it hurt u so bad ? Are u in agony? Say no more, I can feel that u are in agony. Nedd I ask u?

Good, that's very good. That is how I want u to feel, that is exactly what I want u to feel.

U will remember it till u die whay an igony is. I hope u will have time to tell ur children who their real father was, and ur grand children, who their father and grand father, great grand fathers(ur own father) really was.

I only hope ur mother told u the truth who ur father was and u have to believe her. Did u find out who he was really? No I don't think so. U have to believe ur mother without question. What about DNA test, have you tried it?

Thank u for letting me know how ur feeling.

I hope u will have time to tell ur children and grand children, not to pick the wrong one at least.

U said " I can see no sense in ur posting ". True and I agree, may be its because you have " no sense " at all.

Let me say something. The truth is Myanmars are sufferings. The truth is they need help. The truth is to find out the truth. The truth is we have to do some thing to help these people.

Another truth is DVB is an opposition radio and television station. From where this " reputable" comes? It is from Burmanet which is funded by Soros foundation, that is the next truth. What " reputation " , what reputable are we talking about I asked when all the stringers and informers for DVB are all opposition?

The truth is u all are politicising , dramatising, exagerating. The truth is u all are taking advantage of the situation. The truth is u all are hiding your intentions. The truth is u all are making simple things difficult, and making difficult things impossible , and that is the truth, nothing but the truth. So help u God, if u can still be helped.

BBC WORLD NEWS channel had already appologised yesterdy for showing the pictures/photos of Asian Tsuname as recent Myanmar disasters. That is the truth.

To answer ur silly question, truthfully, I don't know how many deaths are there in Myanmar. I am not there, I am not there to count. Are u there , is Aye Chan there? Do u know exact figures yourselves or Aye Chan ?

People say things , " Lo Lo Thalo - Malo Malo Thalo ", that is the truth as well.

UR the one who needs brain replacement. Ur brain can't be repaired.

Have u thought of that, u poor soul?

btw, i can't read ur stupid burmese or what "Amhe Ta Win WIn - Akin Da Byite Byite". so take it back.

u fool! im in agony? i can see u r very angry and defend the evils.. :D

my point is DVB is not reputable. Then how about MRTV?

since u think MRTV is reputable, it suggest that u only have half brain.

with such a little brain capacity, there is little wonder that u talk about all those rubbish.

u r in delusion. u r hallucinating.. little wonder that u have only half brain.

get a brain.. then get a life.. :D

unless u admit that MRTV is not reputable.

Re:Reputable, what reputable, my foot?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/05/19 04:37

kosoe99,

If that is the case, you are not a Myanmar at all. What are you, may I ask?

Now I can understand you very well , it's more clear to me that you don't understand what MRTV is saying either. You are also blind, you could not see what they are showing . Even if you see them you could not know what is what. Because that is a Myanmar TV station speaking English language in Myanmar way. You could not make 1 plus 1, up.

Half brain is much better then the one with no brain at all.

C'mon kosoe99, who has't got a brain.

I am not angry kosoe99, I am just trying to enlighten you. I am trying to help you in my way. Have you thought of that?

Thunderbolts.

dear learned thunderbolts,

now u agree that u only have half brain?

So pls take good care of the other half of ur brain b4 it is eaten by vultures.

Dear thunderbolts,

Im a Myanmar. But I don't understand ur stupid language.

For me to understand, u either write in pure Burmese or English. Understand dear thunderbolts? I hope u can understand.

Dear thunderbolts,

So do u think MRTV is reputable?

Re:Reputable, what reputable, my foot?

Posted by thunderbolts - 2008/05/20 16:23

kosoe99,

By telling me to " take good care of ur other half of ur brain" means that you recognise and acknowledge that I also have another half of my brain. That's very good.

I don't need to use all my brain, the whole brain of mine, to deal with you. My half brain may even be too much. You are alittle to much for quarter of my brain, a little small for my half brain. But I am sure you are not worth my whole brain. Get it?

My half brain alone can handle you, ZynnYaw and shwe kyee together.

kosoe99,

Can you understand what May was saying? What language is that?

Would you be kind enough to translate them into English so that all can understand including the moderators, or could you ask somebody to translate them for all of us?

Don't you think May is way out of line? YES or NO ?

Junta had washed thunderbullshit brain so much that he can't even say yes or no. In other words his brain is so fok up and derail that he cannot decide a simple yes or no.

As for 'may', what he said is appropraite for them and they deserves it. Absolutely! No need to translate into English for there is the name "Than Shwe", "daughter", "family" and INCEST are mention and included in may's statement. Any person who had full brain can understand what INCEST means. Only half brain or loosen brain will have difficulty understanding what INCEST means. One ENGLISH word "incest" means a lot and describe the entire situation. Of course half brain needs more explanation for they do not understand what "incest" means.

thunderbolts,

I don't give a damn to who you direct to. This is a public forum for ALL members to participate. If you want to be private and talk with kosoe99 alone, THEN E-mail him and talk privately. Do not make foolish rules on a public forum not to mention this site is not yours where you can dictate or applied censorship like your pathway bosses junta. The internet is for ALL both good or bad. With your narrow mind and half brain do not, I repeat do not attempt to discriminate others for this is NOT Myanmar or this site is not own or maintain by the evil junta of yours.

I am free to participate or response or write or discuss or post or ignore when I want to, wherever I want, who I want to and so on. Better get this in your idiotic mind and do not forget you are writing in the PUBLIC forum and NOT e-mailing to your designated person. Don't be naive and foolish to think this forum is for you and kosoe99 only. I am not like International community where the naval forces waits for the junta approval. I will intervene, interfere, intrude whenever and wherever I want to. Got that? So stop trying/calling help to moderators or anyone for you and I are in this field (Internet/Public forum) for confrontation and be like a man and confront (face it directly) and stop avoiding like a sissy Myanmar chicken.

ZynnYaw

By the way, what took you so long to answer YES ?

Dear thunderbullshit..

ops.. sorry.. thunderbolts, u know that MRTV only broadcast one sided view from government. and u say it's reputable?

don't fight with Mr. ZynnYaw like a child...

its so childish..

be a man..

and justify ur answer.

My point again is -

MRTV only broadcast one sided view (not even view. its direction) from government. and u say it's reputable?
