
Happy birthdays!

Posted by Sandvand - 2007/09/11 23:41

We are now letting you know when members are about to have their birthdays. You find the information about the next three birthdays in the left column on the front page.

Check it out - and already now we have noted that Jacques, our most active member, is about to celebrate his birthday.

In ten days, that is Congratulations!

(You need to fill out the birthday field in the profile edit to be included)

This is a cozy nook

I hope all the members would cheerfully respond to the greetings

i would try to recall members who had birthdays later on :cheer:

when the clock strikes 12 midnight just within one hour and 30 minutes from now, Hong Kong and the rest of Southeast and South Asia would set the date -- September 21-

September 21 is very memorable to us Filipinos- i know it will be featured in the thread "On that day" which coincides with jacques birthday-
