
She should be stripped off.

Dear Patriots,

Some people asked me a lot of questions, the question they cannot even answer , if they are put to them. May be they don't know the answer, that's why they are asking others.

Looking at SPDC from another angle, looking at Ma Su Kyi from another angle . There is nothing sinister about it. That's the way to look at things or to look at someone to see the true picture or 3 dimension, virtual reality in today's language.

It is not a smear campaign against her, not a propaganda, it is just the way I see her from my angle. You have from your angle, don't you?

I have noticed that some people can't stand the truth? Because the truth hurts, isn't it? The facts are facts. It is not legend . You have to confront the legend with facts before its too late. But what can anybody do, some people prefer to chose the legend, rather than facts?

A jink is a jink, a demon is a demon, an evil is an evil. There is no doubt about it. There is no double meaning either.

Do I have to be a lawyer? Do I need permission from Ma Su Kyi, when I want to talk about her weakness? When I wanted to highlight her faults? When I try to point out her mistakes? What are we doing here? That is what we are doing here in the forum, to find out who is right, who is wrong , don't we all? From who we have to ask permission?

Did anybody or did she ever ask for permission from others to talk about others? Was she the only one who can talk about others nobody else? Who the hell is she?

In England, there are so many Lords and Ladies in the human society. upper class praising one another. And not to forget they are another kind of Lord and Lady . If you want to know more about these another kind,m please contact Royal Society for Protection of Crualty to Animals(RSPCA).

Who is talking about her in her place? I am not talking about her in her place. I am not her spoke-person, I am against her guts. I am talking about her from my own place away from her. Because SPDC does not allow me to talk about Ma Su Kyi from the gate of her dwelling where Ma Su Kyi is residing. The trouble is nobody can go near her.

Why don't you go to Myanmar and talk about them face to face or in front of the government house in Naypyidaw. You may need a permission , like it or not. You must have wanting to talk about SPDC. Why are you so brave from afar, you lot? You do what you have to do, they will do what they'll have to do.

I told you many times, I have spoken to Ma Su Kyi not less then three times. I have spoken to U Tin Oo, I have spoken to U Kyi Maung, I have spoken to U Lwin . I have spoken to Dr. Sein Win , I have spoken to Dr. Thoung Tun, I have spoken to Win Htein and many others. including the late Saw Bo Mya,(KNU) the late Phado Mahn Shar,(KNU) They only have hatred against Tatmadaw and personnel grudge against some people in the Tatmadaw . Some even have hatred and against Bamars

If these opposition had the power , Myanmar will be worse than now, it will be back to 1949. Myanmar will be back in 1988.

If we want to go back to 1988, mobs led by monks roamed in down town Yangon and killing freely. These were those who supported Ma Su Kyi. University students withdrew themselves from protests and demonstrations, they wanted nothing to do with lawlessness.

There are people who wants to skin SPDC alive and there people who want to eat Ma Su Kyi alive and raw, skin and bones even without salt and pepper. That's the way it is , there is nothing anybody can do about it.

Ma Su Kyi has nothing for Myanmar and its people. She has nothing under her thick skull. I could say she is a " thick one". All those who followed her , who support her are thicker than her. They all have nothing for Myanmar and its people . They don't have a plan B. All they are doing is echoing Ma Su Kyi by shouting, "mother help me , father help me." doing nothing. Those who would like to help Myanmar believe that the Myanmar opposition is beyond reach. There is nobody in the opposition to be called politician, who they can trust. As long as NLD and Ma Su Kyi is there, they will not help Myanmar, because it's too risky.

I would like to advise the questionnaire that he should go into his own dressing room and look at himself in the mirror and ask the same questions which he put to me or to others. Such as who are you to speak about SPDC? Who are you to speak about Sr Gen Than Shwe or his wife Daw Kyaing Kyaing. What rights do you have to speak about Than Shwe or Maung Aye. Why are they not even allowed to speak at the United Nations in New York or in Geneva. or at an European Parliament. They are not even allowed to travel. Did you have the permission to talk about them? Did you apply for the permission so that you can talk about them.

I am the same as you are. I have the same rights as you have. If you have the right to talk about any person, you like or you don't like, What makes you think you only have the rights and I have not? What makes you think you are special? What makes you thin Ma Su Kyi is so special? Is it fair for me to ask, who the hell are you?

What rights had Ma Su Kyi got to talk about the leaders of Myanmar Tatmadaw. What rights has she got to talk down on U Ne Win, U Saw Maung and others. Those who, liberated Union of Myanmar from her husband's ancestors or her ancestors in law.

Besides, who were looking after Myanmar and the people of Myanmar while she was enjoying her life as if , she was not a Myanmar , as if Myanmar does not exist, as if the people of Myanmar never existed.

Before she was detained she had been talking about others, none stop with her big mouth which the tongue bears no bones.

When she was allowed to talk , she started talking bad about others, belittling them taking down, as if they aren't worth a penny. What had she done for Myanmar and its people in her life, this shameless woman. That was Ma Su Kyi, who else, and her cronies followed her foot steps.

She went too far even her own followers could not stop her, could not even reason with her, so they resigned by and by one after another, stayed away from her.

Yeah, you know what kind of talks these are . This kind of talk is called sleazy, sly and silly, sicko , propaganda talk not to mention it is illegal in civilized and modern advanced world. If that is true, tell it to George W Bush and Tony Blair . Tell it to yourself and Ma Su Kyi and her followers.

I would like to tell him “ You too mind your own business and leave SPDC lone.”

Ma Su Kyi is the one who has no business in Myanmar. She may have her business in England. Myanmar is my country, Myanmar's are my people . Whatever it is with Myanmar or the people of Myanmar, they are my business.

Ma Su Kyi should go to her own sons , they are her business. If only Alex and Kim are under age or minor. they will be taken by the social services in custody and Ma Su Kyi would be in prison for neglecting her own two children. Or they might award her another Noble Prize as a Excellent Mother.

If a woman abandoned her own country, her own people, and then abandoned her own husband, here own children, what can you expect from a woman like her? She cannot look after her own husband and her own two children, how can this woman can look after a nation where there are as many as 57 million people in Myanmar , how can this kind of woman look after them. How can anybody trust this kind of woman with his/her country. Nobody can trust her with a nation.

Everybody has a right to know everything about Ma Su Kyi, good things , bad things, hidden things about her. Every Myanmar's have a right to know the truth about Ma Su Kyi , everybody has a right to know the dark side of her. especially every Myanmar should know what kind of a woman she is. This is a woman with no heart for anybody but for herself.

People of Myanmar have a right to know who really is making them suffer. Nobody should mistaken Ma Su Kyi as King Wutthandra, who gave up his throne, his country, his wife and his children , who gave away his children to the Ponna , Ma Su Kyi is Ma Badar who lost her husband and her two children at the same time. As I have said before she has nowhere to go, there is nobody to take in such a woman. That is her Kamma.

Only sensible people talks sense, senseless people do not talk sense let alone to understand somebody talking sense.

If only SPDC allows me, I would like to go and see Ma Su Kyi and put sense into her thick head as a last try. If not I would like to advise her to leave Myanmar and go to her sons and live happily ever after. It won't be difficult for her to leave, for she had left Myanmar before . Her age is only 63, that age in England is not too old yet. She can start a new life , its not too late.

Ma Su Kyi has no place in Myanmar, she will get nowhere in Myanmar. Nelson Mandela suffered in South African Prison for 27 years. We know who were responsible for that and why it had to be 27 years. . Today, those who are responsible for Nelson Mandela being in Prison are apologising to Mandala in their own ways , by throwing birthday parties and concerts , this and that, playing innocent to hide their guilt.

Somebody should know there are two side to everything.

We can talk about other things, for the future of Myanmar , for the developments of Myanmar. How we should prevent racial conflict in the future. How we will handle racists in Myanmar. How IC could help people of Myanmar, to ease their sufferings which were imposed because of Ma Su Kyi.

What Ma Su Kyi is doing for Myanmar and its people is nothing to be called, " NOBLE" . The worse thing you can do is to ill treat the people and make them suffer. If a person deserved to be awarded a Noble Price for this., then there must be something wrong, terribly wrong somewhere.

I have heard the Noble Commission in Norway has created an award recently as, " NOBLE WAR PRICE " and " NOBLE LIAR PRICE, to be awarded to George W Bush and Tony Blair for their noble effort on Iraq, for killing thousand of innocent Iraqis, for letting US servicemen and women, British service men and women die for nothing in unjust war , obeying unjust orders. The soldiers must obey orders, they are not to pass judgements or they will be court marshalled and be in prison and face , dishonourable discharge.

Ma Su Kyi should be stripped off of her honourable degrees and award and prices, which she never deserves. These are not for her achievements for mankind . These are purely and politically motivated awards just meant for her and her alone.

When Robert Mugabe liberated Rodesia to become Zimbabwe later, he was awarded MBE by the Queen Elezabeth II with the recommendation by the British government. Now this honour has been stripped off, withdrawn, annulled. They said Mugabe is making his people suffer. If that is the case, there is nobody who deserves more than Ma Su Kyi to be strip of. British did not say it was their economic sanctions on Zimbabwe, which makes the people of Zimbabwe suffer.

These priceless awards become no meaning. Those who are awarded become cheap as those medals selling in Moscow markets. The awards become meaningless. Awarding these to a woman like Ma Su Kyi, these awards become valueless, not worthy any more. These honours become cheap. They are the great insult to others who are great service to mankind in every field.

Regards,

Thunderbolts.

Talking, writing about a WOMAN behind her back, without her permission, without her knowledge is the lowest mentality a MAN can ever had for true MAN never ever talks or writes bad, intentionally behind the back of a WOMAN even though HE never like or hate her not to mention restricting her for many years without any charges or prosecution in the court of law. This lowest sleazy sissy "sluttish" tactic/behaviour shows the personality of that man's or mens' (mental) status.

I was so generous , merely advicing her to go back to England and look after her children. She dares not go for many reasons. she is afraid she might not be able to come back to Myanmar. She is afraid she might be arrested by the British social services authorities for abandoning her children. She is afraid she might be arrested by inland revenue authorities for not declaring her income. tax evasion. May be she is afraid of her mother in law.

In Myanmar society, a place for a woman is in the kitchen, cook , wash and clean.

I bet she can't even cook a meal for herself. She can do nothing , somebody has to do everything for her. She is some kind of a handicapped. Other wise she will starve to death.

In tge united States of America gang leader AL Capone went to prison for twelve years, on charges of tax evasion.

Ma Su Kyi's days are numbered.

Still talking, writing, disgracing about the WOMAN, a WOMAN who is not allow to talk back or response. A WOMAN who is detained for many years without any PROPER charges. A WOMAN whose crime is seeking for justice and truth for her people and country. I can go on forever.

Save your lousy "crook" fingers and hands typing on the keyboard of your PC, wasting your foolish time posting on the net about one fragile old lady that never was charged nor release nor free to speak (or response or defend herself) to her people. Why don't you go back to Burma or Myanmar as a Myanmar and talk straight/directly to Aung San Suu Kyi for you are a Myanmar yourself (your self claim) and you do know her address, don't you? Why don't you talk to Aung San Suu Kyi directly by yourself instead of foolishly posting behind the back schemes or scams on the Internet about Daw Suu? Save your lousy crap to yourself. Can you at least talk directly and confront me as real MAN to MAN?

Why don't you talk like a MAN, walk like a MAN and most importantly behave like a MAN. Don't be a SLUT thunderbolts don't ACT like a SLEAZY SLUT. I do hope you understand what SLEAZY SLUT means IF you had the full brain like a normal person.

You are generous you said, self praised yourself. Where is your generosity? I don't see a bit. Can you explain your "self claim" generosity?

SK,

I did not say " dirty Jobs " did I? That is your words, they are only yours , not mine.

I said " In Myanmar society, a place for a woman is in the kitchen, cook , wash and clean."

Having said that, I should add, " looking after the children " as well. Need I say more?

How dirty your mind and your eyes are I don't have a clue. But if you look at me with your dirty eyes with dirty mind, you will see me dirty., naturally.

If not, you wouldn't not know I am dirty or not unless your mother told you so.

I don't know what I'll do when I see your mother next time. Tell her that.

Beside, the people in the forum know who is the dirty one.

How dirty can I be, depend on you.

ZY,

If you think I am saying bad things about Ma Su Kyi within my rights, tell me what you think are the bad things that I have said. In what way they are bad or dirty (SK words)

Why don't you come up with good things about her, instead of you opposing me like this.

C'mon ZY let's hear about it. How do you view her? I don't think you have anything good to say about her. Have you?

To all and thunderbolts,

In this world, there are many people who do not know what they are doing or writing in your case. We all know the world is full of problems. Why? because of people like you who do not know what they are writing about. Read your posts and I bet of all your total posts in this forum not to mention other forums like soc.cul.burma, half of your total posts was mention about Aung San Suu Kyi and none yes none is written in a positive way meaning you did not applaud or thank or even acknowledge the sacrifices Suu Kyi had done for her country and people. The most important thing for a human (humans are regarded more intelligent than animals) is to know what is right and what is wrong. I know you will argue what is right for me can be wrong for you and vice versa. I understand all this game which I will call "Post Modernization" syndrome.

Do you realized or know that YOU are totally "obsessed" with Aung San Suu Kyi???. In your mind, brain, writing etc. all about Suu Kyi. More than half of all your posts, Suu Kyi is mention, involve or written. Do you know it is illegal in the court of law to disgrace/discredit a person behind her back, without her knowledge or permission and you are liable to be sued if that person chose to? Do you know it is illegal to restrain a person for her/his own defense? Don't you know it is cowardice to punch a person when she cannot punch back? I can go on forever.

Nowadays as you had also said in the past people "abuse" their rights. Did you ever think for a moment and put yourself in Suu Kyi's shoes/place? Did you? Are you considerate that an old age woman like Suu Kyi should be confined to a worn out house for many years without even tried or charge in a proper decent manner in court? Do you realize also that Moke Joke poodle of yours, the country that you and your poodle cherish so much is the poorest country in the world? Do you realize that SPDC is the rulers and not Suu Kyi thus in your timid brain who is responsible?. Do you know SPDC is part of the problem for Burma's woes and not a solution? Do you understand also YOU are part of the problem and not part of the solution? How many decades Burma is in deep shit hole? How many years had you've been posting? Any tangible results? Did Burma prosper? Why?

Did Burma ever tried Suu Kyi as the national leader? If Suu Kyi haven't been tried why is the judgement already been made that Suu Kyi don't deserve for the leadership? Why? There's a saying in Burmese.....Wa Ma She Bair Net, We Ma lot Bar Net. As you claim you are a Myanmar I assume you understand it. What about Than Shwe and his gang being the leader of Burma? What status is Burma now? Modern developed advanced nation?

Be wise and reasonable and look around Burma. All her neighbors are getting developed, modern and prosper where Burma lags behind and don't even had the medical professionals that qualifies nor the highly advance tools to give medical attention to the top circle let alone for the people.

Intellect people knows what is right and what is wrong and these people never criticised the Nobel Prize Winner foolishly. Only fools will criticised it for they know not what they are doing/writing.

Now, don't come around and tell me you got your own rights of this that. I know all these games/schemes of "post modernization" (mostly politics involved) syndrome. To me there is always "right" and "wrong", "correct" and "incorrect" and the judgement to decide that depends upon the "intellect" of that particular person/persons.

I can go farther and deeper but I will stop for now.

Fleaballs,

Don't get excited old man. You'll never know what is smart respectable woman because you've met seen one. You now only dirty woman around you.

You must be very naughty boy when you were young. Ho ho ho!:laugh: Your Mom must have given you nice lessons. Did she? hee hee :kiss:

Everybodys aware that you have loads of grudges for DASSK like the way Nar Nar Barwa hates Buddha's teachings & kamawar. You have no brains in your head and no guts in your stomach. Only full of junks in your brain. You can't beat her because she is smarter. You have no political place because she is ahead of you and your hooligan group. You are just a flea in her underwear. Yes! a flea.

I can see you are burning with your own grudges. pity!

Dear Patriots & ZY,

There are many people in the world who are in the habit of lecturing others, dictating others, telling other to do things, thinking that they are superior, they are the boss, they are the masters, they are the only know if not God. There is where the problems is, there is where the conflict is. As long as the history of the world is recorded, as far as it goes back, the conflicts never ended, those they tried to solve these by waging wars. The wars might decide the winners and losers but that is by name only.

The wars never solves the problems but make the innocent people suffer. Wars with deadly weapons, wars with words. War is war nothing else. As a matter of fact all those engaged in wars are all losers. We all have learnt a little bit of this, a little bit of that in the history how some people tried to dominate others, by killing, robbing, stealing, raping, in the end making them slaves, under their influence.

True. the problems of the world is because of people like me OR because of people like you. "PEOPLE LIKE ME" means I am not alone. PEOPLE LIKE YOU means you are not alone. Generally speaking, because of people who do not accept the realities, in other word the truth. What makes you think you are an innocent fellow, what make you think you are so special?

You have no right to dictate me. Let the readers decide, my man, let them decide, will you. Some may be in my favour, some may not, some undecided. The same goes for you That's the way it is. I don't care if you have no respect for me, but respect the people.

You have to thank me, for I recognise the fact, for I acknowledge the fact that there are people who likes Ma Su Kyi, without questions. You may be one of them. That is your problem, yes the PROBLEM. You must also recognise and acknowledge that there are people who do not like Ma Su Kyi. If you accept that, that is a good start.

You have to thank me for, that I am trying to clear the fog, from the eyes of some Myanmar, trying to clear their cataract, and their confused mind. What they do next is their business.

I don't need to tell you this, but for your information, I took part in this or the other forum since some years ago, Different names may be, but the same meaning as you have guessed, since the AO old forum was started. I do not know where you were at that time, I do not know what name did you take then, in the forum, it does not matter.

What I am trying to say is, I am not always against Ma Su Kyi as you think. I have had my constructive approaches to Ma Su Kyi, my advices to NLD, Who am I to say advice to those who did not even take advices from the experience politicians and elders.

in 1988 Myanmar was in turmoil, in chaos. law and order broken. The possioblities were many, nothing looked good for the nation for the people. Myanmar politicians looking for a stepping stone, Myanmar politicians were so desperate, they tried and used the sons and daughters of old politicians as young blood. Cho Cho Kyaw Nyein, Dr Sein Win, and many others. Cho Cho and Sein Win did not let the politicians used them, they were on their own.

They saw Ma Su Kyi was available, and she was the one and only fit enough to be the stepping stone. They made a good choice I should say. So they picked her up came into politic reluctantly. Ma Su Kyi came on top of course. Ma Su Kyi was caught, trapped. As the daughter of Ko Aung San, she could not say NO. There and then Ma Su Kyi jumped on the wagon. How could she let this great opportunity missed? Would you in her place? I wouldn't, honest.

Myanmars never knew she ever existed. She came her out of the blue. Daughter of Ko Aung San. Myanmars believed that she came down from heaven taken the form of human being to help them to save them. They did not even know she was an Ingalate mayer until some time.

Whatever it was, elderly people give her good advices, elderly experience politicians tried to gave her a hand, though they did not join hands with her. She rejected them, refused to take their advice instead she snapped many of them. Instead she joined hands with those who have personal grudge against U Ne Win, and she also attacked U Ne Win herself. I do not know what has she got against that man. Especially after that old man has gone from the politic.

Then she tried to break up the Tatmadaw, she tried to break up the Tatmadaw and the people, which meant she tried to brake up the nation. The most dangerous game she had played. If only the Tatmadaw leaders have had no common sense . I would not dare to think the fate of Myanmar and its people.

BTW, the people know by now why they are suffering, who is making them suffer. If they don't know somebody has to tell them or let them know. Even Mr Gambari had to say what he had to say to Ma Su Kyi in his own way.

True again, some people been talking bad about SPDC. bad about Than Shwe., bad about Maung Aye, whoever names comes into their mouth, they never had good views on them . Without who or what they are.

There are bad side and good side in everybody. There is nothing to say about the good things, but have to say many things about bad side to be good. The intension can be translated into actions, performance. Then we will know good or bad.

I know what I am doing, I know what I am writing , because this is my doing and this is my writing, my man, you may be the one who does not know what I am doing or what I am writing or vice visa.

I have my view on Ma Su Kyi, the way I see her , what's wrong with that, may I ask?
What I think may be a mole but you may think that is a Pagoda where Buddha's relics are buried and you worship it, is that my business?

You may have your own view on her, or on anybody. That is you.

I have invited people to come up with some thing that Ma Su Kyi has done " Good " for the nation, or for the people , in the past or at present. I haven't seen a thing, have you?

Ma Su Kyi is a woman, a weaker sex, she deserves to be treated with etiquette. But she can rub your face with her bottom, is that right? Is that what you meant? Since women fought for equal rights, they are to be treated equally the same as men, They are even serving in the armed forces s soldiers, Don't give me that shit, my man. She deserves to be treated the way she acts. Every actions has its equal and opposite reaction , remember. That is where you and I are talking.

Another thing, this is very important for you to know. In your eyes, in your view you may be seeing me talking about Ma Su Kyi, but what you are missing is, I am talking about Myanmar and its people who are suffering because of her. Ma Su Kyi may be the daughter of a Tatmadaw man, but she does not understand the roll of Tatmadaw, You and many others still do not understand the roll of Tatmadaw either.

I have told everyone what I do not like about Ma Su Kyi . You can't take it. That is your business. I described points by points what I do not like about Ma Su Kyi in the past and at present , You don't like it , That is not my business.

I am not here for you to like me, or love me. I am here to express my views on her. I am expressing the different views on her from you all. Different means not the same. Get it. Different means no enemy, it is diferent. There will always be difference. You n do nothing about it, can you?

Shall I say that I am a very rear species, if you want to call it that way, who dares to reveal about Ma Su Kyi, about what I know and think of her. I am not slandering or blundering about her , you can find out the facts, true or not. They are proven beyond reasonable doubts or not.

" the sacrifices Suu Kyi had done for her country and people " you said

What sacrifice ? Tell me more, please. I am telling you that Ma Su Kyi has not lost even one of her Body Hairs, to call sacrifice . As a matter of fact , the people of Myanmar are the one who are sacrificing their life for her. the people of Myanmars re paying the price, not Ma Su Kyi, She is slashing the throats of every citizen , the blood to offer her God or Gods. How NOBLE of her, as noble as Moses?

She is under house arrest , yes , that is all by name only. There are many prisoner of conscience in detains ion even in United States of America. Oh, beg your pardon , not in USA, but in Guantanamo in Cuba. And many other US satellite countries.

Ma Su Kyi has everything, she does not have to worry about anything . She has been well look after, not even one mosquito dares bite her. She has slaves in her house to see her every need. You see how we Myanmar look after a NOBLE Laureate like her. Other prisoners of conscience are not treated like that in Myanmar.

No, no, I am not obsessed with her, not at all I am only replying to those blind idiots. who are obsessed with her, thinking she is a living Goddess. They are the ones who blindly believe her, who blindly accept her without questions. They are afraid to question her, they are afraid their followers will harm them if they don't support her. They are afraid if they say they don't like her .

I think, I know what you like. I don't give sweets to a child to like me knowingly sweets can harm them. Either I wash my hands or tell the child what he should know.
I should not, and would not mislead the child in anyway. I cannot let the children running around freely, would you? There must be a kind of control don't you agree?

We are talking about many children in Myanmar, their future is in our hands. How will we shape them is the question. With lies, with false, with what is not true, hiding the truth, telling them what they only like to hear, teaching them how to resist their parents, their leaders? I will tell the child what is good and what is bad s a duty, as a responsibility, what comes next is up to them. But I will not lead them with false information in the beginning, in they middle or in the end.

We are talking about Myanmar as a nation, Myanmar as the people , fellow human beings, please remember that.

Legal, illegal in the court of law? Ma Su Kyi has not been sent to the court of law yet, though there are enough proofs and evidence as I have told you. This is politic.

If I am telling lies about her, making false accusation, making a false complaint, fabricating, setting things up against her with fake evidences, with fake proofs that may be so. I may be wrong, my morel is gone. Peoples of Myanmar should know the truth about her, my conscience is clear. Believe it or not.

I have made many points about her, can you deny them ? Do you know the truth?

For example, the late Ingalate Michael Aris was her husband. There are three truth you may argue, tell me what are the truth you know? Was "Ingalate" not the truth? Was " Micahael Aris" a lie, if Michael Aris was not her husband , who was her husband then? Do you know her husband if there is someone? Tell me pleased, I would like to know.

I am the example, look at the way you and some of your fellows are attacking me, because I made myself clear that I don't like Ma Su Kyi., with reasons, not excuses my man, not excuses, the reasons.

Most Myanmar are afraid of everything because they are ignorant. They are afraid of everything, so they nodded their heads or keeping quiet. That gets Myanmar nowhere. So they ride the tidal waves, when the waves are down they are swept away and they drown. That is how I see it.

I told you, the people must know about her , they have a right to know. Somebody has to tell them. They believe it or not is another matter as long as there is truth in it, it's OK. Myanmar have a habit of believing everything so easily, so that they can ease their live, escaped from hardship. That's the ignorant ways. Do you understand that? The people must know the real Ma Su Kyi, what's in her head, what's on her skin, what's under her skin. what's in her blood, what's in her bone. Who is behind her.

There are those whose been disgrace/discredit SPDC and some members of SPDC. behind their back while in exile. Am I different from them? Tell me please.

More than half of my posts, are about Ma Su Kyi. What percentage is it about other peoples postings about SPDC. In that case I am not as bad as them, don't you agree? I still can't beat them yet. I have to carry on.

I know exactly who is making my country and my people poor, I want to pass on my knowledge to my people as well, because they are misled , because they don't know the truth.

I am encouraged, that there are many readers who are on our postings. At least they are having second thoughts, tat past they are adjusting themselves, if not making decisions.

I see Ma Su Kyi as a poisonous snake, old or young , it has the poison(venom), the children which are born through will be poisonous as well.

Here you are, while you are talking about the rights, and the abuse of rights you yourself is violating my rights to shut me up.

OR do you want me to say more about Ma Su Kyi, that you dare not utter a word about her. Are these you yourself wanted to say and you found me to do your job, helpful to you in a way, are you hiring my mouth, am I your scapegoat, a stepping stone?

Ma Su Kyi is not part of the problem, she is the whole problem.

I said a woman place is in the kitchen, cook, wash and clean. Look after the children and husband.

Now you are asking me , “ Are you considerate that an old age woman like Suu Kyi should be confined to a worn out “. My answer to tht is and old age person should be at old aged home . There is a home for them at HhinZegone in Yanagon. Ma Su Kyi should be there, resting with a Seitbadee (rosary) in her hands preparing for her future. It will determined whether she will gho to heaven or hell .

“ Now a days ”means around her birthday. Yes this is the proper time, when some people celebrating her birthday. As a matter of fact, there is always somebody some where is always talking about her, almost everyday isn't it? There is no stopping . Jesus Christ lives.

“How many decades Burma is in deep shit hole?” You know more than I. If you do not know I will tell you, keep it in your head. Screw it with nuts and bolts if necessary. Burma is in deep shit hole for over 60 years. If you do not know . SPDC is not responsible for that, BSPP is not responsible for that, AFPFL is not responsible for that either. Almost all former colonial countries are in deep shit. I am going to tell you that, HOW, but I want you to find out by yourself . I don't want to be the one who wash your brain.

Do you want to know what I want? Ma Su Kyi should be tried and charged in a proper decent manner in court and sentence her to death. Hang her from a lamp post or telephone post or from a tree. But we don't want her to be a martyr for some do we?

That will be too easy. We simply want her to suffer, the same as the suffering people of Myamars, because of her.

“Modern developed advanced nation?” The more questions you asked, they more you are showing you are so ignorant. Sorry to ask you this question. A question can never be silly according to you. Can you make your wife pregnant if your wife is in infidelity or if you are castrated ? Think about it OK? That may answer your questions.

Don't mean to be personal. Have you got a family and children. How do you govern them control them your wife, your children? You let them do what they like because this is a fee world?

Myanmar is a nation with 57 million people it consists of many families, and many husband and wives and children, they must be under some kind of control. That control is to protect the freedom, That control is to protect individual rights. Surely an intellect like you can understand that.

I asked what is NOBLE about Ma Su Kyi? Is that not simple enough?

The intellect people knows what is right and what is wrong. You are right my man they do. But do they always do what they know? Does Ma Su Kyi know what is right and what is wrong? How many intellect people are behind Ma Su Kyi in Myanmar?

If Leonard Nicholas was still alive today, nobody would thought of a Noble Prize for Ma Su Kyi" you better find out what was the story behind all these, will you?

If you want to make the wrongs right, you must know what is to correct the incorrect , you must know what is what first. That is what I am doing. Don't you understand at all?

Now you are contradicting yourself, by saying, “ To me there is always "right and "wrong", "correct" and "incorrect" and the judgement to decide that depends upon the "intellect" of that particular person/persons.

What is right and what is wrong , what is correct and what is incorrect where there is a big propaganda , campaign especially smear campaigns are going on?

I want to see you telling us, what are the bad things and the good things that SPDC has done for the nation and the people. Don't tell me what you think, just tell me what you know.

If you think I am a fool, stupid , idiots, and you by talking to me can make you a fool, a stupid and an idiot.

I can go farther and deeper but I will stop for now.

Thunderbolts.

First of all I don't buy your crap. What that means is I do not accept nor approve your logic. I will go into details why I don't accept it.

Here it rolls.....

Dear Patriots & ZY,

There are many people in the world who are in the habit of lecturing others, dictating others, telling others to do things, thinking that they are superior, they are the boss, they are the masters, they are the only know if not God. There is where the problems is, there is where the conflict is. As long as the history of the world is recorded, as far as it goes back, the conflicts never ended, those they tried to solve these by waging wars. The wars might decide the winners and losers but that is by name only.

The wars never solves the problems but make the innocent people suffer. Wars with deadly weapons, wars with words. War is war nothing else. As a matter of fact all those engaged in wars are all losers. We all have learnt a little bit of this, a little bit of that in the history how some people tried to dominate others, by killing, robbing, stealing, raping, in the end making them slaves, under their influence.

Have you ever notice that when you aim or point a finger at your opponents (not enemies) three other fingers pointed back at you. Same goes with the above statement of YOURS. Your militant masters are the very people who lectures how to say yes to the constitution, how to dictate their goals in their constitution, how to cupped hands when they appear, how to wage war against the ethnics, how to block international aid "workers" and stop humanitarian aids, and show to the world how to kill monks or killing, robbing, stealing, raping making child soldiers or creating slaves by driving out citizens from their native lands and so on. Do you really understand that SPDC is the culprit and the source of all these problems that YOU mention? Do you?

True. the problems of the world is because of people like me OR because of people like you. "PEOPLE LIKE ME" means I am not alone. PEOPLE LIKE YOU means you are not alone. Generally speaking, because of people who do not accept the realities, in other word the truth. What makes you think you are an innocent fellow, what make you think you are so special?

This statement of yours I find it funny. Really amusing. Why is it funny? Because a thief is accusing the victim of a theft being occur as a thief. In other words, the victim of a theft is being accused as a thief by the thief who did it. Did you understand that? Do you follow me? Can you say when a dog barks at the human and say the barking sound comes from the human? Can you? If you say "yes" like your masters want on their "imposed" constitution you are either a fool or an idiot. Take your pick, my crappy take your pick! By the way the question that you ask what make me so special is that I understand FULLY what is right and what is wrong and THAT makes me special from idiots and fools. Did it make sense? Common sense?

You have no right to dictate me. Let the readers decide, my man, let them decide, will you. Some may be in my favour, some may not, some undecided. The same goes for you That's the way it is. I don't care if you have no respect for me, but respect the people.

As for the above statement I am dictating no one but "presenting my point". Understand? Yes, my point. Maybe my style of writing offended you and you think I am dictating or lecturing you and the world. Well, take it as you please but the fact of the matter is I am presenting my POINT. Do you understand what POINT means? Do I have to elaborate on the POINT too?

You have to thank me, for I recognise the fact, for I acknowledge the fact that there are people who likes Ma Su Kyi, without questions. You may be one of them. That is your problem, yes the PROBLEM. You must also recognise and acknowledge that there are people who do not like Ma Su Kyi. If you accept that, that is a good start.

Every body knows there are people who likes this and people who likes that but the POINT is YOU are "mentioning" the same person (Suu Kyi) over and over and over and over and over, again and again and again repeatedly and THAT shows your status as an "obsessed" maniac who had grudges against Suu Kyi for she is awarded many awards like none inside Burma let alone the militant murderers who let their own people die in millions.

You have to thank me for, that I am trying to clear the fog, from the eyes of some Myanmar, trying to clear their cataract, and their confused mind. What they do next is their business.

Thank you for what? Are you an eye doctor or specialist to clear other peoples' eyes from fog or cataract? What about you? Do you know what I think? I think you are totally blind (on both eyes) and it is hopeless and impossible to make you see things matters again unless of course if God allows to make a blind man see again and I had doubts, serious doubts God himself will be reluctant to cure your blindness and you know why? Because you want to see an innocent woman who is detained mercilessly for many years to be put to death. Is that your attitude towards Suu?

I don't need to tell you this, but for your information, I took part in this or the other forum since some years ago, Different names may be, but the same meaning as you have guessed, since the AO old forum was started. I do not know where you were at that time, I do not know what name did you take then, in the forum, it does not matter.

What I am trying to say is , I am not always against Ma Su Kyi as you think. I have had my constructive approaches to Ma Su Kyi, my advices to NLD, Who am I to say advice to those who did not even take advices from the experience politicians and elders. in 1988 Myanmar was in turmoil, in chaos . law and order broken. The possioblities were many, nothing looked good for the nation for the people. . Myanmar politicians looking for a stepping stone, Myanmar politicians were so desperate, they tried and used the sons and daughters of old politicians as young blood . Cho Cho Kyaw Nyein , Dr Sein Win, and many others . Cho Cho and Sein Win did not let the politicians used them , they were on their own. Sorry to say this to you. No thanks for I do not need nor will I accept ANY information that comes from a deceptive source or souces for I don't had any confidence or trust whatsoever from evil doers and their lackeys.

They saw Ma Su Kyi was available, and she was the one and only fit enough to be the stepping stone. They made a good choice I should say. So they picked her up came into politic reluctantly. Ma Su Kyi came on top of course. Ma Su Kyi was caught, trapped. As the daughter of Ko Aung San , she could not say NO. There and then Ma Su Kyi jumped on the wagon. How could she let this great opportunity missed? Would you in her place? I wouldn't , honest.

Myanmars never knew she ever existed. She came her out of the blue. Daughter of Ko Aung San. Myanmars believed that she came down from heaven taken the form of human being to help them to save them. They did not even know she was an Ingalate mayer until some time.

What's wrong with ingalate mayer or chinese mayer or kalar mayer or bamar mayer or kayin mayer or chin mayer? Are you revealing your discrimination mind set on race and gender?

Whatever it was, elderly people give her good advices, elderly experience politicians tried to gave her a hand, though they did not join hands with her. She rejected them, refused to take their advice instead she snapped many of them. Instead she joined hands with those who have personal grudge against U Ne Win, and she also attacked U Ne Win herself. I do not know what has she got against that man. Especially after that old man has gone from the politic.

Then she tried to break up the Tatmadaw, she tried to break up the Tatmadaw and the people, which meant she tried to brake up the nation. The most dangerous game she had played. If only the Tatmadaw leaders have had no common sense . I would not dare to think the fate of Myanmar and its people.

May I ask you who are you talking about? About Aung San Suu Kyi right? Again? Didn't I tell you, you are totally, hopelessly "obsessed" with her. I pass the Bachelor Degree majoring in "Psychology". Do you know in human, any human there is a conscience mind and unconscience mind both contradicting each other? Do you know your conscience mind will be saying "I am NOT obsessed with Suu Kyi" but at the same time your unconscience mind is secretly obsessed with her?.

BTW, the people know by now why they are suffering, who is making them suffer. If they don't know somebody has to tell them or let them know. Even Mr Gambari had to say what he had to say to Ma Su Kyi in his own way.

True again, some people been talking bad about SPDC. bad about Than Shwe., bad about Maung Aye, whoever names comes into their mouth, they never had good views on them . Without who or what they are.

There are bad side and good side in everybody. There is nothing to say about the good things, but have to say many things about bad side to be good. The intension can be translated into actions, performance. Then we will know good or bad.

I know what I am doing, I know what I am writing , because this is my doing and this is my writing, my man, you may be the one who does not know what I am doing or what I am writing or vice visa. You claim you know what you are doing. right? Well, IF you know what you are doing then why did you not know you are writing about one woman whom you mention many times in this forum? Why not admit the fact that you did mention her, even now about her? Do you know the meaning of "obsession"? Look in the dictionary and read your many posts whether you are obsessed with her or not?

I have my view on Ma Su Kyi, the way I see her , what's wrong with that, may I ask?

What I think may be a mole but you may think that is a Pagoda where Buddha's relics are buried and you worship it, is that my business?

You still don't get it, do you? There is nothing wrong with having a different view on Suu Kyi but there is something wrong by repeating about her over and over and over and over and over and over and over..... now that's the problem with you, now that's what it's headed towards obsession.

You may have your own view on her, or on anybody. That is you.

I have invited people to come up with some thing that Ma Su Kyi has done “ Good “ for the nation, or for the people , in the past or at present. I haven't seen a thing, have you?

I will present one compelling fact about Suu Kyi's goodness. Although I present just one out of many, it is the one most effective and efficient evidence. Remember, always remember QUALITY does not rely on QUANTITY (I hope you had the full brain to understand the difference between those two words). Here's mine.....Aung San Suu Kyi shows to the world in deeds and in action that although she is a female, old and weak, her mind, her principle, her stand, her courage, her unwavering dedication, her love, her wisdom and most of all her suffering of staying in one small confined place for many years without any "proper" charges in court which is illegal to detained a person for more than a period of reasonable time is the profound pillar of dignity, integrity and noble conduct that a human can endeavor taking Burma and the Burmese to a higher stage to be proud, respectful and guidance for SHE had become an International Icon that no one Burmese can achieve like she did. The more suffering that you mention and your masters' aim, the more determined she is and the more the world acknowledge her and respect her. Burma and her people can once again take pride in her achieveness and Burma and her people can once again get back the dignity and integrity because of her.

Ma Su Kyi is a woman, a weaker sex, she deserves to be treated with etiquette. But she can rub your face with her bottom, is that right? Is that what you meant? Since women fought for equal rights, they are to be treated equally the same as men, They are even serving in the armed forces s soldiers, Don't give me that shit, my man. She deserves to be treated the way she acts. Every actions has its equal and opposite reaction , remember. That is where you and I are talking.

Another thing, this is very important for you to know. In your eyes, in your view you may be seeing me talking about Ma Su Kyi, but what you are missing is, I am talking about Myanmar and its people who are suffering because of her. Ma Su Kyi may be the daughter of a Tatmadaw man, but she does not understand the roll of Tatmadaw, You and many others still do not understand the roll of Tatmadaw either. Here's the compelling question. If you are talking about Myanmar why in the world had you mention Suu Kyi's name?

I have told everyone what I do not like about Ma Su Kyi . You can't take it. That is your business. I described points by points what I do not like about Ma Su Kyi in the past and at present , You don't like it , That is not my business. I simple don't care about your business. I'm just pointing my points and revealing the truth and seeking for justice. That's all.

I am not here for you to like me, or love me. I am here to express my views on her. I am expressing the different views on her from you all. Different means not the same. Get it. Different means no enemy, it is diferent. There will always be difference. You n do nothing about it, can you? Look, I don't give a damn about love or hate or like or dislike. I came into this world ALONE and I will leave this world ALONE so don't come and tell me about friends or foes or like or dislike or love or hate. As the world knows I don't give a damn about people liking me or talking me for I had the long record of talking to myself and I don't give a damn to no one. Understand?

Shall I say that I am a very rear species, if you want to call it that way, who dares to reveal about Ma Su Kyi, about what I know and think of her. I am not slandering or blundering about her , you can find out the facts, true or not. They are proven beyond reasonable doubts or not.

You "think" you are rear species, BTW what's the meaning of REAR Mr. learned and enlightened man? Did you mean RARE species? Here's the definition of both words

RARE:

1: marked by wide separation of component particles : thin 2 a: marked by unusual quality, merit, or appeal : distinctive b: superlative or extreme of its kind3: seldom occurring or found : uncommon

REAR:

1: to erect by building : construct2: to raise upright3 a (1): to breed and raise (an animal) for use or market (2): to bring to maturity or self-sufficiency usually through nurturing care b: to cause (as plants) to grow4: to cause (a horse) to rise up on the hind legsintransitive verb1: to rise high2of a horse : to rise up on the hind legs

“ the sacrifices Suu Kyi had done for her country and people ” you said

What sacrifice ? Tell me more, please. I am telling you that Ma Su Kyi has not lost even one of her Body Hairs, to call sacrifice . As a matter of fact , the people of Myanmar are the one who are sacrificing their life for her. the people of Myanmars re paying the price, not Ma Su Kyi, She is slashing the throats of every citizen , the blood to offer her God or Gods. How NOBLE of her, as noble as Moses?

Living in a confined place is a sacrifice of her precious and meaningful life where she can contribute to her people and country in many ways if she is free. Burma had already wasted 46 years and how many more years can Burma afford to waste? Don't tell me Burma is in the forefront position among her regional nations for if you do, I will definitely say you are a fool. Now, I know it is hard to make a blind man see for I am just a special human and not a doctor, eye doctor.

She is under house arrest , yes , that is all by name only. There are many prisoner of conscience in detains ion even in United States of America. Oh, beg your pardon , not in USA, but in Guantanamo in Cuba. And many other US satellite countries.

Ma Su Kyi has everything, she does not have to worry about anything . She has been well look after, not even one mosquito dares bite her. She has slaves in her house to see her every need. You see how we Myanmrs look after a NOBLE Laureate like her. Other prisoners of conscience are not treated like that in Myanmar.

No, no, I am not obsessed with her, not at all I am only replying to those blind idiots. who are obsessed with her, thinking she is a living Goddess. They are the ones who blindly believe her, who blindly accept her without questions. They are afraid to question her, they are afraid their followers will harm them if they don't support her. They are afraid if they say they don't like her .

The more you mention about her to more you reveal your obsession. This is the fact, ofcourse you will not admit with your consciences mind but your unconscience mind is revealing itself.

I think, I know what you like. I don't give sweets to a child to like me knowingly sweets can harm them. Either I wash my hands or tell the child what he should know.

I should not, and would not mislead the child in anyway. I cannot let the children running around freely, would you? There must be a kind of control don't you agree?

How did you know more about me than I am? Does that make sense? How did you know more about Suu Kyi than Suu Kyi herself? I believe you are out of your mind to know other people's live than themselves. Stupidity cannot be cure I may had to say.

We are talking about many children in Myanmar, their future is in our hands. How will we shape them is the question. With lies, with false, with what is not true, hiding the truth, telling them what they only like to hear, teaching them how to resist their parents, their leaders? I will tell the child what is good and what is bad s a duty, as a responsibility, what comes next is up to them. But I will not lead them with false information in the beginning, in they middle or in the end.

We are talking about Myanmar as a nation, Myanmars as the people , fellow human beings, please remember that.

Legal, illegal in the court of law? Ma Su Kyi has not been sent to the court of law yet, though there are enough proofs and evidence as I have told you. This is politic.

If I am telling lies about her, making false accusation, making a false complaint, fabricating, setting things up against her with fake evidences, with fake proofs that may be so. I may be wrong, my morel is gone. Peoples of Myanmar should know the truth about her, my conscience is clear. Believe it or not.

I have made many points about her, can you deny them ? Do you know the truth?

For example, the late Ingalate Michael Aris was her husband. There are three truth you may argue, tell me what are the truth you know? Was "Ingalate" not the truth? Was "Micahael Aris" a lie, if Michael Aris was not her husband , who was her husband then? Do you know her husband if there is someone? Tell me pleased, I would like to know.

I am the example, look at the way you and some of your fellows are attacking me, because I made myself clear that I don't like Ma Su Kyi., with reasons, not excuses my man, not excuses, the reasons.

Most Myanmars are afraid of everything because they are ignorant. They are afraid of everything, so they nodded their heads or keeping quiet. That gets Myanmars nowhere. So they ride the tidal waves, when the waves are down they are swept away and they drown. That is how I see it.

I told you, the people must know about her , they have a right to know. Somebody has to tell them. They believe it or not is another matter as long as there is truth in it, it's OK. Myanmars have a habit of believing everything so easily, so that they can ease their live, escaped from hardship. That's the ignorant ways. Do you understand that? The people must know the real Ma Su Kyi, what's in her head, what's on her skin, what's under her skin. what's in her blood, what's in her bone. Who is behind her.

How many times did you mention her name? I lost count. really!

There are those whose been disgrace/discredit SPDC and some members of SPDC. behind their back while in exile. Am I different from them? Tell me please.

More than half of my posts, are about Ma Su Kyi. What percentage is it about other peoples postings about SPDC. In that case I am not as bad as them, don't you agree? I still can't beat them yet. I have to carry on.

I know exactly who is making my country and my people poor, I want to pass on my knowledge to my people as well, because they are misled , because they don't know the truth.

Who is misleading who? becareful what you say or point for the other fingers will point back causing backlash syndrome on you and your militant masters.

I am encouraged, that there are many readers who are on our postings. At least they are having second thoughts, tat past they are adjusting themselves, if not making decisions.

I see Ma Su Kyi as a poisonous snake, old or young , it has the poison(venom), the children which are born through will be poisonous as well.

Here you are, while you are talking about the rights, and the abuse of rights you yourself is violating my rights to shut me up.

This is real funny. No body is shutting you up! You yourself had guilty conscience and feels that my compelling POINTS are making you numb and mum. I'm glad my thoughts/writing had effects on your mind. At least a human's voice can train a monkey or a cow to act or react. This is good result. very good.

OR do you want me to say more about Ma Su Kyi, that you dare not utter a word about her. Are these you yourself wanted to say and you found me to do your job, helpful to you in a way, are you hiring my mouth, am I your scapegoat, a stepping stone?

Ma Su Kyi is not part of the problem, she is the whole problem.

Well, that's your wisdom, your whole wisdom and concept of how you see things. Good, like you said, people can judge you by your decision.

I said a woman place is in the kitchen, cook, wash and clean. Look after the children and husband.

Now you are asking me , “ Are you considerate that an old age woman like Suu Kyi should be confined to a worn out ”. My answer to tht is and old age person should be at old aged home . There is a home for them at HhinZegone in Yanagon. Ma Su Kyi should be there, resting with a Seitbadee (rosary) in her hands preparing for her future. It will determined whether she will gho to heaven or hell .

“ Now a days ”means around her birthday. Yes this is the proper time, when some people celebrating her birthday. As a matter of fact, there is always somebody some where is always talking about her, almost everyday isn't it? There is no stopping . Jesus Christ lives.

Wow! I am not completely see negatively. Of all the entire long post of yours, the only statement that I really appreciate is your saying of JESUS CHRIST LIVES !!!! Bang! you hit the bull's eye which mean you hit the truth. Since you brought up JESUS CHRIST let me elaborate more, no hard feelings nor take it as an insult.

I would like to present my knowledge and believe it or not is not my problem nor do I entice no one to believe it or not to believe it. Just take it as a presentation from my part. OK? Here it goes.....

There are variety of religions on earth. Accept that? Let's talk about the major ones namely, Hindu, Muslim, Buddhist and Christianity.

In HINDU it declares TRUTH is very elusive.

In MUSLIM, Mohammed declares "I am the Prophet of the TRUTH"

In BUDDHISM, Buddha declares "I am searching for the TRUTH"

Now, in CHRISTIANITY, Jesus declares "I am the WAY, the TRUTH and the LIFE, no man cometh unto the father but by me (John 14;6).

See the difference? Sense the difference? Unlock the meanings? Understand it thoroughly? Can you compare and contrast? Who or which one is "complete" and "decisive"? When YOU yourself mention JESUS CHRIST LIVES what does that mean? It means HE is still alive or living. Does it not? I will get into this deeply and decisively at later appropriate time.

“How many decades Burma is in deep shit hole?” You know more than I. If you do not know I will tell you, keep it in your head. Screw it with nuts and bolts if necessary. Burma is in deep shit hole for over 60 years. If you do not know . SPDC is not responsible for that, BSPP is not responsible for that, AFPFL is not responsible for that either. Almost all former colonial countries are in deep shit. I am going to tell you that, HOW, but I want you to find out by yourself . I don't want to be the one who wash your brain.

OK, according to your own declaration Burma is in deep shit for 60yrs. Out of 60 yrs how many yrs did the military rules? Can you answer that "correctly"? Wash your brain and answer my question please.

Do you want to know what I want? Ma Su Kyi should be tried and charged in a proper decent manner in court and sentence her to death. Hang her from a lamp post or telephone post or from a tree. But we don't want her to be a martyr for some do we?

That will be too easy. We simply want her to suffer, the same as the suffering people of Myamars, because of her.

Good, you reveal your evil wantness to murder Suu Kyi. Too easy huh? Make her suffer huh? What a goodwill, goodness and mercy/kindness you and your masters have. No wonder Burma is shit hole! no wonder!

“Modern developed advanced nation?” The more questions you asked, they more you are showing you are so ignorant. Sorry to ask you this question. A question can never be silly according to you. Can you make your wife pregnant if your wife is in infidelity or if you are castrated ? Think about it OK? That may answer your questions.

What does the modernization, development and advancement of a NATION has to do with wife pregnancy? I think you getting "self deludedly insane". There is no relationship whatsoever with a pregnant wife and a modern, developed and advanced Nation. Who is ignorant now? Who? You or Me?

Don't mean to be personal. Have you got a family and children. How do you govern them control them your wife, your children? You let them do what they like because this is a free world?

Myanmar is a nation with 57 million people it consists of many families, and many husband and wives and children, they must be under some kind of control. That control is to protect the freedom, That control is to protect individual rights. Surely an intellect like you can understand that.

I asked what is NOBLE about Ma Su Kyi? Is that not simple enough?

The intellect people knows what is right and what is wrong. You are right my man they do. But do they always do what they know? Does Ma Su Kyi know what is right and what is wrong? How many intellect people are behind Ma Su Kyi in Myanmar?

There are many intellectuals behind Suu Kyi both inside Burma and outside. Of course you are NOT included for sure.

If Leonard Nicholas was still alive today, nobody would thought of a Noble Prize for Ma Su Kyi" you better find out what was the story behind all these, will you?

If you want to make the wrongs right, you must know what is to correct the incorrect , you must know what is what first. That is what I am doing. Don't you understand at all?

Now you are contradicting yourself, by saying, " To me there is always "right and "wrong", "correct" and "incorrect" and the judgement to decide that depends upon the "intellect" of that particular person/persons.

What is right and what is wrong , what is correct and what is incorrect where there is a big propaganda , campaign especially smear campaigns are going on?

I want to see you telling us, what are the bad things and the good things that SPDC has done for the nation and the people. Don't tell me what you think, just tell me what you know.

If you think I am a fool, stupid , idiots, and you by talking to me can make you a fool, a stupid and an idiot. Talking to a fool doesn't necessarily means or make the talker a fool. Do you understand this logic? If not, ask me kindly or gentle and I will reveal and unlock or explain it to you or others in detail. I will repeat again. Talking to a fool doesn't necessarily means or makes the talker a fool. Do you understand that?

I can go farther and deeper but I will stop for now.

You can stop any time you want but please don't mention about Suu Kyi for let her speak for herself and stop trying or pretending to be her lawyer or advocate either in dislike or like for her.

ZY,

I wasn't selling you anything, you buy it or not buy it nothing bothers me. To use your own words , you must realised that I did not buy any of your rots either. While you are telling me you know yourself that three fingers of yours are pointing at you, straight at you nobody else. Are you talking to me or talking to yourself, looking in the mirror. You may find anything I say funny, because you are a funny man as well. So you better stop all these rubbish and say what you have to say.

This is a 21 century, not victorian age.

What you don't like you don't like. For example you don't like me, so when ever I come on you are the one, especially you are the one who followed me, and tried to engaged, my man. Because nobody buys your rots . What I don't like, I don't like. How many times I mention her name Ma Su Kyi , that is nothing to do with you. Is it? In the western world they say " that is none of your business, f- - - off, or bugger off. These are not my words, that's what they the people of the west use to say.

Even I call her Su Kyi, there is nothing you can do, can you? That is her name. Mrs Aris, she might like it better.

As I have suspected you want me to say some more about Ma Su Kyi, because you have no guts to say anything against Ma Su Kyi. You cannot speak up your mind about her, so you go with the flow You know in your heart she is wrong, but you can't spit it out. You are afraid of your fellows. They might sink you. That must be something for the one who said about right and wrong who talked about correct and in correct. Don't forget Ma Su Kyi is just another human being , I will give her that much of the credit. She is among the people , people like her causing the problems.

Are you one of secret admirorof Ma Su Kyi? There is nothing wrong with that you know?

Before independence Myanmar was made a target of the British for not accepting the dominion status, for not being in the British Commonwealth. Because Myanmar wanted to be free, independent, sovereign in theory and in practice.

Again, since 1962, military government took over in Myanmar, then came BSPP, Myanmar never had as bad relation as today with the west. Never heard of economic sanctions , never heard of embargoes and so on. Yet Myanmar decide rather die then to lose the freedom, independent and be a sovereign nation., be a slave.

Today Myanmar and SPDC is victimised because they can built their country with their hands, what ever they have, without the help of the west. More to that, The west do not like Myanmar to be friendly with the PR China, or those they consider enemies on their list. All these I have said it time and again in the past.

There are lots of things , politic which relates to economy which again related to relation social culture. Economic sanctions is everything to destroy a nation. Myanmar had experience before. You won't understand, you will not never under because these are serious matters and issues, no funny things you know.

That is what Ma Su Kyi is doing, destroying the nation of Myanmar, destroying the people of Myanmar's morality. Ma Su Kyi is creating the people of Myanmar as the most corrupt people in the world. Sad to say the Myanmar already lost their beautiful culture, tradition, customs. If that is the price for democracy and if that is human rights, I don't want pay. I don't accept.

As a matter of fact Ma Su Kyi is destroying the nation of Myanmar which she never lift one finger of her to built it. She never took part in in building it.

When I asked what had she done to deserve all these, you came up with one which said to be good thing about her. The way I se it there are baskets full of people like her in Myanmar, even these baskets have had holes, let alone in the world, in the past and at present who fits in what you mentioned. She is not alone. That is the problem again . Nobody is indispensable . Ne Win is gone, Saw Maung has gone, there will be somebody after Than Shwe. We have had Khin Nyunt and the gang disappeared. But nobody was a puppet, nobody was a stooge.

I have talked to you about " performance," in this forum. Building a nation and destroying a nation, constructions and destruction.

Before Ma Su Kyi puts the people of Myanmar to be in higher places, she must bring them down to the lowest places first , is that what it is all about? Must she destruct Myanmar to construct again, is that it?

Yes, she is awarded many awards. I said it because that is true. The questions ware does she deserve them? Are there no other people in the world who deserves these many awards, like her. I said these awards become cheap, not worth a penny because of Ma Su Kyi, who does . I asked you Ma Su Kyi's achievements, in politic, economy, social science, etc. etc. which really deserve these award . But you came back with none. Though you talk too much, you speak nothing, that's bad , too bad.

Destroying the nation, destroying the people, making 57 million suffer, is INNOCENT and NOBLE. That's something I don't know. new doctrine , new philosophy I must admit.

She is the one who is making these happened, if I do talk about her, who shall I talk about?

There are alternative and better ways, Ma Su Kyi does not bother, She is not for U tern. inflexible, uncompromising etc.

Though Ma Su Kyi is at the end of her road, I will still be talking about her, so that nobody take the same idea as her, nobody take the same wrong path as her. That is important, because there are still people like you around , who will defend her , protect her. There is nothing wrong in that either.

I am not hoping everybody to like my view, my opinion. If she is a woman as you said, I have said where her place is.

Some people are at war to protect their way of life, their freedom , their independence. Ma Su Kyi is destroying Myanmar and the people of Myanmar and their ways of life. Do I have a right to protect and defend it from Ma Su Kyi? Do I have to fold my arms and shut up and do nothing watch what ever she is doing to my country and my people? That will be the day.

I aid, I have nothing to say about SPDC, because many people have already said many things about SPDC, in fact more than enough. There are no much people saying anything about Ma SU Kyi, simply they are afraid of the opposition. The evidence is there are more bystanders , silent majority, even in this forum. Why not, they have their rights to remain silent.

Are you saying those who are in prisons are sacrificing their live for man kind.

ZY, you have nothing to argue. admit that. I ask you to bring out one good thing she has done for Myanmar and it's people. You brought one. Do you know I had a dream , I have the ideas to turn Myanmar into heaven on earth? If you can give me what I ask for, free hands, leave me alone, I will do it within a few years, the most 10 years. But don't try and put strings around my neck, I am nobody's dog.

There is no point for me to go on with you, though I respect other readers. Let them make their own judgement.

Some people warned me about you, but I like to have my own experience . Now I know you are a "Psycho", You yourself have admitted.

You know ZY, any animal can be trained yes any animal land animal, seal animal, sky animal. Have you ever heard of a " Psycho" cured ?

Buddha said " Pu-htu-zin naw - Ohm-ma Da Gaw ", which means man kind is subject to craziness(Psycho). That means you and I are included , remember that. There is truth in that.

You are one of the admirors of Ma Su Kyi, that's nothing wrong.

Shall we wait for the day you and I see eye to eye on Ma Su Kyi. I don't think that day will ever come. If you want to waste time, its up to you. Mr Psycho, you silly man.

Thunderbolts.

Mr. Git (Mogyothwar/thunderbolts)

Again, I will have to remind you. The "obsession" is my point. I am pointing the "evidences" of your obsession. Like I said it is difficult to explain to idiots. Idiots will be idiots. Only fools with half brains will buy your lousy stuff. As for the engagement it all depends upon you. Your choice. You can engage and confront me or you can ignore me. Look at "Polaris" or "MokeJoke". He/they chooses to ignore me. You see? it all depends on the individual. One thing I would like to make clear to you. Confronting evil and its followers is my business. I will do my thing (confronting evil) and you can do you thing whatever it is. In the court of law, whenever a "suspect" (not yet criminal) is brought to justice, the prosecutors have to "prove" with compelling evidences that this "suspect" is guilty. Do you follow me to this point because for people like you and your masters where criminality is the norms and rubber stamp judges are the reality life and culture, I had no choice but to remind what the so called business of yours of murdering innocent people is your profession not to mention in publicly your intention of killing Aung San Suu Kyi by hanging clearly shows who is the rotten one? Who?

No guts to say about Suu Kyi? You're talking to the wrong man, Mr. evil old man. Do you have guts to go back to your country and confront Suu Kyi personally instead of sitting in front of your PC in UK and write rubbish? Irrelevant trash? Of course I cannot stop you mention Suu Kyi's name for a Billion times but that's not the point. My point is to show to the public that you are "obsessed" with Suu Kyi. To prove it that you are as guilty as hell. Just like prosecutors I will prove to the world you are nothing but a piece of shit, a worthless human being with an animal brain seeking to kill or wanting to see Aung San Suu Kyi hang!

Watch, I will prove it to the world that you are indeed an evil spirit old man walking towards your own demise. True, I may come up with another username (finger) but my brain (hand) will be the same. As my mother had advice me, as long as I am alive, the knowledge I had, the instinct I had, the ingenuity I had, the creativity I had, the innovation I had and most of all the gifted (by God) genius gig I had.

As for the so called secret admirer (your word) of Suu, there is no secret when I declare on the net that I did admire her bravery, her intellectual, her dedication, her firmness, her stand and most of all her sacrifices. Did I not declare on the Internet? Does that sound so secret Mr old fool?

As for the performance of your militant masters including their axehandler like you, the world had seen with their own eyes how they "criminally neglect" their own citizens to die and suffer. The performance is written and proven in the history books of how they mow down monks, how they throw corpses into the rivers, how hundrends of dead rotten bodies washed up on the beaches and so on. Yes the performance is seen and the world is the witness my crappy, grumpy old evil and wicked man. Now on a account of you and your masters' "performance" what is the status of Burma may I ask?. Are they making Burma the richest and most prosperous nation in South East Asia let alone in Asia and beyond?

Good, now that we are engage in confrontation which is my hobby, I will keep on watching your every move or step until and unless you and your masters are finished forever. Don't worry, although it might not be ZYNNYAW the hand will be there to make sure evil is eliminate for ever. So forget about fOk off.....I will fOk in!

Got that Mr. Evil Maniac Obsessed Man?

If you look back the history of the AO forum, initially there are 3 contenders to me (ofcourse at that time my username was NYINWAY, remember?) namely, Mogyothwar, Ordinaryman and Kmyaing. Ordinaryman (now change to Ordinaryman1) fOk off long time ago. Kmyaing change too, Kmyaing change into a better person in my view. I do give my credit to him. He is silient/mum now. So who is left? Mogyothwar the notorious outlaw. Well to me you are an outlaw. I am just like the prosecutor or posse in American usage to hunt down notorious criminals and bring them to justice. Mogyothwar change to thunderbolts. That's OK and it is perfectly normal to change usernames. BUT.....the hunt goes on for my principle is holding TRUTH in my right hand and holding JUSTICE in my left hand. I know there are people who likes SPDC, I know that BUT, to me if anyone is criminally evil, my business is to eliminate them "completely". To get rid of the cancer, one must take out the root. It may take years, decades but TRUTH will eliminate DECEPTION. So watch out for those who dwell on deception my crappy, grumpy old worn out evil and wicked man.

You are slowly but surely revealing your inner feelings of killing innocent people especially your most hated Aung San Suu Kyi which goes to an extent of hanging her on the post or something. Remember, I graduate with B.A. degree majoring in Psychology. In other words I am a mindbender. Your mind is in my HAND and I will bend it, twist it, occupied it and finally drive out the evil spirit that dwells inside you. Don't forget that.

Who is destroying the ONCE rich and prosperous nation Burma? Who? The Burma now is nothing like the Burma I used to live. You claim nobody buys my rubbish right? Well, wait a minute mr evil man wait a minute and slow down. There are plenty of readers and some (including Jacques, the french professor/moderator of this site) have already come out in the open and let me know they are reading my each and every post including the posts of MY other fingers. This much I will reveal the truth of your deceptive accusation of nobody buys my trash. Huh! What a lousy false accusation?

Now, last but not least, the last word that you used against me is.....Silly man. Well there is also a response on that.

You call me "Silly" Man and I call you "Gitty" Man. How's that? Do you know what GIT means or stands for? Look into the dictionary and you will find out!

Let the readers judge the validity of valued creative thinking between the "Posse" and the "Outlaw". You can run my old and evil man but you cannot hide, for truth will eat you alive! There's a saying in Burmese.....Kyar net Zhin, Lare Byin Mar Thwey. Meaning in English, Tiger and the Elephant confront in the open range! I'll pick the Elephant for they are brainy, strong and dedicative.

NOTE:-:

Ofcourse I follow you stupid. Here's my explanation.....A hunter always follow his prey. A predator always follow his prey and finally THE POSSE HUNT DOWN HIS/THEIR OUTLAW! I choose the word POSSE because the HAND had FINGERS and stand for or united as ONE.

Response?
