Asia Observer dinner in Manila

I am in Manila now - and tonight had a very nice dinner with three of our members here.

First of all I met with Peachy (username "Pokkha", see her profile page here), who is working part-time as community manager on the site and really is doing a great job. We had a long meeting discussing improvements we want to make on Asia Observer. More on that later.

For dinner we were joined by Jean Prudente - (username "Zen" - see her profile page here) and Ferdinand L. Bondoy (username "corcky" - see his profile page here). You find a picture of these two below.

It was a great night indeed and for me as founder of the site it was a warm confirmation of how some of our members really care about the site. Thank you so much to all three of you and to all the others who are regular contributors. I really appreciate your participation!

I will stay in the Philippines until Sunday. Then I will go to South Korea to attend a course for Norwegian journalists.

Cheers,

John

Hi John,

Have a good time in Manila. I envy you because I like very much Manila and the Philippines. By the way, please ask to Phokka if she is angry against me. She never takes part in my forums, including "What to share on A.O."

Hello Jacques,

I just want to give you some peace of mind. I'm not angry with you. There's no reason for me to feel that way.

Hope you're enjoying your stay here.

John, I should tell Zen and Corcky about this photo that you uploaded. They must be very excited to see this. Haha.

Hope you had an enjoyable stay. B)

Looks like fun...

So John, what Philippine tourist spots did you actually pick to visit? Hope you have a pleasant stay.

I miss my Philippines! :lol:
